BIG CROWDS CHEER TAFT

Los Angeles Streets Thronged With People, Gathered to Welcome President

13,000 School Children Pass in Review; Chief Executive Visits Sister

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 16.—President Taft and his party, accompanied by Governor Hiram Johnson and the latter's gorgeously uniformed staff, arrived in Los Angeles today, promptly on schedule time, 9:30 a. m.

Behind a locomotive whose black body was almost hidden by fluttering flags and bunting the President's special drew into one of the Arcade station yards, some distance away from the depot, and there, far from the ruck of the crowd, Taft and his party alighted to be greeted by Mayor Alexander and a reception committee made up of prominent men in public life.

Thirty automobiles were required to accommodate the parties of the President and Governor Johnson and the various reception committees. These, escorted by nearly a thousand militiamen, platoons of police and an honor guard of civil war veterans, made up a parade which was the first feature of the program for one of the most strenuous days the President has had on his present trip.

PRESIDENT CHEERED.

Cheering began when the President, in Mayor Alexander's motor car, emerged from the railroad enclosure and for twenty blocks or more as the parade passed slowly along roped-off streets, lined by thousands of people, Taft was continually acknowledging the greetings of the people. Apparently the entire population of Los Angeles came downtown to greet the President and these were reinforced by thousands of visitors who congested all the incoming morning trains on all steam railroads and electric lines.

Following the parade the President was escorted to Washington Park, where 13,000 school children were assembled to welcome him. The children were grouped about the park, waving flags and singing national anthems. After this review the President delivered a short address at

Wilson Fasts 16 Days And Will Keep It Up

Berkeley Councilman Avers He Feels Better Now Than He Ever Did.

BERKELEY, Oct. 16.—Beginning the sixteenth day of his record fast, John A. Wilson, Socialist Councilman, was at his desk in the department of finance and revenue this morning as usual, declaring that he felt better than when he indulged in the foolish habit of eating.

"I am stronger and can do things that I could not when I ate regularly or at all," he said. "I lost ten pounds during the first few days of my fasting, but I began on the first of this month, but I have lost no weight since, and haven't a single pang of hunger or feeling of weakness. I had been troubled with catarrh, as well as insomnia, and both these troubles have been relieved.

"I expect to continue fasting as long as I feel as well as I do today. I learned something about abstemiousness in eating and drinking when I lived near the Indians many years ago. The red men set us a good example in their habits of non-indulgence. I am drinking nothing but water and an occasional glass of lemonade.

Atwood Flies Fast With a Passenger

Goes 21 Miles in 20 Minutes in Cross-Country Flight in Massachusetts.

MIDDLEBORO, Mass., Oct. 16.—Harry N. Atwood, the Boston aviator, flew twenty-one miles in twenty minutes with a passenger yesterday. This is said to be the greatest speed ever reached in a flight with a passenger.

Atwood started from New Bedford and came across country to this city. His visit here was to fulfill a promise made some time ago to give an exhibition in this county, where his father formerly lived.

ATHLETICS WIN THE SECOND GAME

Thousands of Frenzied Fans Cheer Fillies On to Victory

SHIBE PARK, PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 16.—The Athletics turned the tables on the New York Giants in the second game for the world's championship today by a score of 3 to 1. The game was even until the sixth inning, when Collins doubled and Baker drove the ball over the right field fence for a home run. Both pitchers were in excellent form, Plank having a slight advantage owing to his steadiness.

Marquard was visibly nervous in the opening innings, but steadied down and the Athletics were unable to do anything with his delivery except in the sixth inning. New York's only run was the result of a misjudged fly in center which gave two bases. The local team backed up Plank in faultless style while the Giants made three errors and a rank muff by Devore, the latter also striking out four times.

The total attendance was 26,286. The total cash was $42,962.50, divided as follows: Players, $23,199.75; each club, $7,733.25; national commission, $4296.25. The attendance was divided as follows: 17,290 at $1.149 at $1.50, 1074 at $2.7764 at $3.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 16.—Baseball enthusiasts who retired last night dubious of the weather for today were beside themselves with joy when they took a peep at the sky this morning and saw that everything was right for the second game between the New York Nationals and Philadelphia Athletics for the championship of the world at Shibe Park this afternoon.

The bleacher line began to form at 8 o'clock Sunday night. The early comers brought camp stools and boxes and each carried with him enough food to see him through the game today. At midnight more than a thousand were in line and when the gates to the grounds were opened at 8 a. m. the crowd about the place numbered nearly 5000. The lines stretched four squares away and in the throng of early comers were several women.

BLEACHERS FILL FAST.

The admission to the bleachers and the field is $1, and these places were the first to be filled. At the grandstand office there was another line of enthusiasts, who were waiting to buy $1.50 tickets, which would permit them to stand in the aisles and on the promenade. These seats were not placed on sale until later in the morning.

The New York team arrived here before noon and went directly to an uptown hotel. They were accompanied by a large contingent of rooters.

BAKER'S ARM SWOLLEN.

The Philadelphia team reached Shibe Park before 1 o'clock. All donned their baseball uniforms and had a light work-out. Baker's arm, which was slightly lacerated by the spike when Snodgrass dashed into him stealing third base on Saturday, is slightly swollen.

The champions of the National League, having gotten the "jump" on the premier team of the American League on the opening game in New York on Saturday, the Philadelphia men will take desperate chances to even up the series. The players came out of Saturday's fray in excellent condition. The defeat did not in the least shake their confidence in their ability to finally land the greatest honors in baseball.

TAKE MORE CHANCES.

The terrific strain under which ball teams work on the opening day of an important series is now over. Both teams played a cautious game on Saturday, apparently feeling each other out. The players went into today's contest with increased confidence and took more chances on the bases and in the way of working inside trick plays.

The crowd overflowed into the field shortly after 12 o'clock and the spectators soon stood dozens deep behind the four-foot fences erected in right and left field.

Each team played its trump card Saturday in trotting out its best pitcher, and the second choice men were today the leaders in the games. Neither Manager McGraw, nor Manager Mack would publicly announce their batteries for today's game until they were handed to the umpire just before the game started, but the baseball sharps who picked the batteries last Saturday picked Marquard of the Nationals to oppose Coombs of the Americans. As announced, the batteries are: Giants—Marquard and Meyers. Athletics—Plank and Thomas.

The line-up follows. New York—Devore, 1f.; Doyle, 2b.; Snodgrass, cf.; Murray, rf.; Merkle, 1b.; Herzog, 3b.; Fletcher, ss.; Meyers, c.; Marquard, p.

Philadelphia—Lord, 1f.; Oldring, cf.; Collins, 2b.; Baker, 3b.; Murphy, rf.; Davis, 1b.; Barry, ss.; Thomas, c.; Plank, p.

First inning—New York: Devore

Earthquake Is Recorded By University Seismograph

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Oct. 16.—The university seismograph, according to reports made today, registered yesterday morning an earthquake of moderate energy due to variations in weather conditions. The earlier phases were made and confused with a series of movements known as micro-seismic disturbances. No distance or direction is recorded. The motion began at 8:54 and continued until 9:10 a. m.

Attempt Made to Blow Up The President's Special

SANTA BARBARA, Oct. 16.—Sheriff Nat Stewart left here this afternoon for Gaviota to search for a mysterious man who, according to advices received by county authorities, placed thirty-six sticks of dynamite under the Southern Pacific steel bridge between Gaviota and El Capitán just before President Taft's train passed early today. A watchman employed by the railroad since the shopmen's strike began, saw the man and fired several shots at him as he fled. The railroad agent at Gaviota admitted later that dynamite had been found under the bridge, but declined to give particulars. The explosive was removed before the Taft special passed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—A representative of the bureau of economics of the Southern Pacific Railroad admitted the finding of dynamite under the bridge near Gaviota, over which President Taft's train passed. No details have been received, but the railroad headquarters here have been placed in communication with the agents at Gaviota and will investigate the matter thoroughly.

CHINESE TO WORK FOR PEACE

Members of National Parliament Demand Calling of Sze Chuen Assembly

Heavy Runs on Banks Continue and Rioting Marks Day in Peking

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—The first news of the war between Chinese revolutionists and the Imperial forces since the establishment of the capital of the republic of Chung Hwa in San Francisco has been received here today. A cablegram to the Chinese Free Press published here gives an account of the disabling of three Chinese gunboats by the revolutionists near Hankow yesterday.

The boats destroyed were the Chor Kung, the Chor Keung and the Chor Choy. Two other boats of the flotilla, one of which carried Sui Ching, Viceroy of the Hu Teh province, escaped. The cablegram gives no information regarding the attacking forces.

Tong King Chong, editor of the Free Press, denied the report that the Japanese have in any way aided, actively or sympathetically, the revolution.

APPEAL TO TAFT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—President Taft was appealed to today by the Chinese National Association, through its secretary, Tong King Chong, to use his influence to preserve the neutrality of the powers in the struggle for independence now blazing in China.

The association which has its headquarters in this city today wired President Taft and Secretary of State Knox as follows:

"The Chinese National Association, representing four-fifths of the Chinese residents of the United States, British Columbia and Mexico, earnestly urge that the United States government use its best offices to maintain and preserve the neutrality of the powers toward the revolutionary struggle now in progress in China in order that its entity may be preserved and a stable government established."

WHOLESALE DESERTION.

It is reported today at the local headquarters of the revolutionists that from the Imperial forces there has been wholesale desertion to the side of the republic. Eighteen hundred men under the command of General Cheng Fiao, revolted and joined the revolutionists. The same was reported at Hang Yeng, that troops numbering 10,000 came over to join Li Yuen Hung, the present commander of the revolutionary forces.

Imperial gunboats reported today to have been disabled in action were used in patrolling the Yang Tze river. While the policy of the new government favors the liberation of women, it was stated at the local headquarters today that woman suffrage was a matter for the future. It was considered unwise to establish it until the new government takes a stable form.

PEKING, Oct. 16.—Members of the National Assembly, which was organized a year ago for the nucleus of a Chinese parliament and which is to begin its second session here on October 22, have taken a hand in the

FRICK PRESIDES AND WELCOMES CROWD

Problems of Schoolroom to Be Solved at Conference.

About 1000 pedagogues, representing 121 schools of Alameda county, attended the annual convention of the Alameda County Teachers' Institute, which opened at Idora Park. The audience contained schoolmasters who were attractively gowned and schoolmasters who listened with rapt attention to the musical program which was furnished by Miss May Geraldine Ferral, contralto, and Lowell M. Redfield, baritone, whose songs elicited tremendous applause. Selection from California composers, Uda Waldrop, J. H. Stewart and Wallace Sabin, were much appreciated.

Prof. Edward O. Sisson, one of the members of the department of education in the University of California, who will be one of the institute speakers, gave his views upon "The Spirit of Discipline."

"Whenever the teacher causes the pupil to do what he would not otherwise do, or omit what he would otherwise do, that is discipline. It is clear, then, that discipline pervades the whole work of the school. All depends upon the spirit which directs and animates the work of the teacher and school. These elements are essential—the light of reason, the warmth of kindly interest, the power of resolute determination. With these in his own heart and conduct, the teacher will inevitably have the power both to control and direct the school and also cultivate self-control in every pupil. All these elements are necessary. In particular, let no one think that indulgent love can foster true character—the teacher and parent must love the child too much to give it its own way when that way is harmful or dangerous."

Drugs Wife and Ties Her to Telephone Pole

Physician Sent to Insane Asylum for Inhuman Treatment of His Spouse.

PATCHOGUE, N. Y., Oct. 16.—Dr. William C. Willis of this place is today an inmate of the State asylum for the insane as the result of his action yesterday in tying his sixteen-year-old wife to a telephone pole.

The young woman, who apparently had been drugged, is in a serious condition. Two physicians declared that Dr. Willis was insane.

Dr. Willis, a year ago, was indicted on the charge of abducting Jennie Dr. Willis, the girl who is now his wife. The case against him was dropped when the young woman appeared in court with a marriage certificate.

Discovers Bottle and Swallows Its Contents Before Parents Are Aware.

YONKERS, N. Y., Oct. 16.—Unlaid Markout, two and a half years old, is dead here as the result of having gulped down an ounce of whisky. The child got hold of a flask of whisky and took two or three swallows of the fluid before her parents discovered what she was doing. She died within twelve hours.

Pistol Battle Follows 'Cracking' of Bank Safe

CLARKSVILLE, Va., Oct. 16.—Burglars dynamited the vault of the Planters Bank here early today, and, following a pistol battle, escaped with what is believed to be a large amount of money. J. S. Clements, who sleeps in a room above the bank, was awakened by the explosion and exchanged shots with the robbers.

HOT WORDS PASS IN COURT

Attorney Scott Checked by the Judge for Remarks in McNamara Trial

Phrase 'Railroaded to Gallows' Arouses Protest From Bordwell

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 16.—By granting a challenge on the ground of bias preferred by the defense, Judge Walter Bordwell today barred Talesman Z. T. Nelson from serving on the jury in the murder trial of James B. McNamara. The prosecution withdrew objection to the challenge at the afternoon session of the court.

Talesman Nelson was the first examined and the ruling is considered to have established a precedent in the case. The talesman said that he believed the Los Angeles Times building was blown up by dynamite and that he had an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the defendant who is charged with the death of Charles J. Haggerty, killed in the explosion, which it would require strong evidence to remove.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 16.—Opposing counsel wrangled again today before Judge Walter Bordwell over the case of Talesman Z. T. Nelson in the murder trial of James B. McNamara. Joseph Scott, considered the principal orator among counsel for the defense, made the final argument for the defense, reading from the record to support his contention that Nelson was a man honest and could not determine whether McNamara caused the death of Charles G. Haggerty.

"Better the defendant be taken by a mob and lynched than to be tried by a jury consisting of men like Nelson," he declared.

Mrs. Nelson sat by a window listening to the argument that her husband could not possibly give a fair trial. She brought a great bunch of flowers from the Nelson country home, and they were shared among the talesmen.

CHECKED BY COURT.

Attorney Scott finally was checked by the court when he used the phrase "railroaded to the gallows."

The court suggested that no insincere intent had been shown by the prosecution.

"The greatest persecutions in history have been conducted by sincere men," rejoined Scott.

"Mr. Horton's argument on Saturday did not show that spirit," said Judge Bordwell. "Although I may disagree with him—I may disagree with him," he repeated, adding, "but I have yet drawn no conclusions."

BEETER A MOB

"The defendant better be taken out by a mob and lynched than to be tried by a jury consisting of men like Nelson," declared Scott in a loud voice.

"I think we may proceed orderly," broke in G. Ray Horton of counsel for the state.

"Certainly, if there is to be any impartial trial," added Judge Bordwell.

Scott lowered his tone.

"I would shrink my duty if we did not insist on a fair jury," he continued, "and with twelve fair-minded men, 95 per cent of the task of administering justice is accomplished."

"If counsel for the state would allow their blood to cool, they would certainly not place themselves in the position of the defendant and be tried by twelve Nelsens."

"So far as I am concerned, I want to say that if this jury box is to be filled by twelve men like Nelson, the ends of justice will be frustrated. The people of this county will be tempted to resent it."

"This is no chicken thief case. It is a charge of importance to this defendant."

"I have confidence in this court and the administration of justice and there is enough fairness in the judges of this county to give this man a fair trial."

HORTON PROTESTS

Horton objected that the State was attempting to railroad McNamara to the gallows.

"Mr. Scott," said Judge Bordwell, (Contin'd on Page 2, Cols. 3-4-5)

WHEN THE STOMACH STOPS

Working Properly, Because There Is Wind in It, Use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets to Set It Going Again.

A Trial Package Free. The doctor's bill is a heavy one, but unprofessional folks know it is "wind on the stomach," and a most distressing condition of things. It is a serious condition of this great motor organ. At times often leading to bad and fatal results. The stomach is embarrassed and hampered with wind cannot take care of its food properly and indigestion follows, and this leads to two appalling conditions to enumerate. The entire system is implicated—made an active or passive factor in this trouble and life soon becomes a questionable boon.

All this is explained in doctor books; how undigested food causes gases by fermentation and fermentation in which process some essential fluids are destroyed—burnt up—wasted by chemical action, followed by defective nutrition and the distribution through the alimentary tract of chemically wrong elements and as a consequence the stomach and entire system is starved. Plenty of food you see, but spoilt in preparation and worse than worthless.

A dehydrated stomach is the epitome of evil; nothing too bad to emanate from it, but the gas it generates is probably its worst primary effect and the only way to get away with this is to remove the cause. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets go to the root of this trouble. They attack the gas-making foods and render them harmless. Flatulency or wind on the stomach simply cannot exist where these powerful and wonder-working little tablets are in service.

They were made for this very purpose to attack gas-making foods and convert them into proper nutriment. This is getting to be a common knowledge. A whole book could be written about them and then not all told that might be told with profit to sufferers from this painful disease, dyspepsia. It would mention the years of patient and expensive experiment in vain to arrive at this simple remedy, innumerable and at last success. It would make mention of the different stomach correctives that enter into this tablet and make it faithful.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are not alone intended for the sick, but well folks as well. They run who craves hearty foods and wants to eat heartily and run no risk of bad effects; they eat like a charm and make eating and digestion a delight and pleasure. They keep the stomach active and energetic and able and willing to do extra work without extra labor or effort. Don't forget this, Stuart people are often neglected, but the Stuart Dyspepsia Tablets have them in mind.

A free trial package will be sent any one who wants to know just what they are, how they look and taste, before buying. Write for this package to the nearest drug store for them; everywhere, here or at home, they are 50 cents a box, and by getting them at home you will save time and postage. Your doctor will prescribe them; they say there are 40,000 doctors using them, but when you know what is the matter with yourself, why go to the expense of a prescription? For free trial package write to F. A. Marshall, 150 Stuart Building, Marshall, Michigan.

DYING SON'S CRIES WIN HIM PARDON
Bernard Wrench Gets Home Too Late to See His Boy Alive.

UTICA, N. Y., Oct. 16.—Though Governor Dix wrote and signed his pardon while riding westward on a New York Central limited train, Bernard L. Wrench, sent to Auburn prison for using some of the money of his home town of Whitestown, reached home too late to see his son alive.

The cries of the lad last week caused friends to intercede with Governor Dix and he drew up a pardon after hearing the story. Wrench was released from Auburn as soon as the necessary formalities could be complied with, and was hurried home in an automobile, but the boy died a few moments before his arrival.

RODEO IS SWEEP BY $40,000 FIRE

Overturning of Lamp Causes Blaze That Destroys Most of Town.

RODEO, Oct. 16.—Fire played havoc yesterday, destroying practically the whole town of Rodeo on the north bay shore, and giving many anxious hours to the firefighters of Berkeley, where a grass fire burned several miles on the hill country and threatened some of the fine homes of the Claremont district, while in another part of the city two cottages and the roof of a planing mill were destroyed.

At Rodeo the people of the place, helpless through lack of water, and fire protection of any kind, watched their homes go up in smoke, powerless to prevent the conflagration. The damage done by the flames before they burned themselves out is estimated at $60,000.

The fire destroyed thirteen dwelling houses and the town hall. As a result sixteen families are homeless and without their household effects.

So quickly did the fire burn, fanned by the brisk north wind, that by the time the fire department of Pinole, which is two miles distant, arrived on the scene, everything had been licked up by the hungry flames.

The Southern Pacific Company rushed a fire engine from Port Costa, but through the lack of adequate water supply, it was of no assistance to the fire-fighters.

An overturned lamp in the home of J. Cooper was the cause of the fire. In a few moments the cottage was a mass of flames, which spread to those in the neighborhood.

The thirteen dwelling houses burned were owned and occupied as follows: Cottage owned by S. J. Owen, occupied by F. J. Claeys; two houses owned by J. Slate, occupied by F. Botkin and J. Morrison; cottage owned by J. Cooper and occupied by R. Hughes; house owned and occupied by J. Johnson, and Johnson Hall. Four dwelling houses owned by Manuel Lema and four by Antone Lema, were occupied by workmen at the Pinole powder factory.

WALSH WON'T FIGHT ANY LONGER

Paroled Banker Declares He Will Be Called Only by Opportunity.

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—John R. Walsh, former banker and the head of railroad and quarry enterprises in this vicinity, who was paroled Saturday from the Port Leavenworth federal prison, spent yesterday at his home here. Last night he outlined his plans for the future.

"I do not contemplate any sensational financial fight; I do not anticipate my entry to the business world again will be marked by an aggressive move. I am now engaged in business, he said with a twinkle in his eye. All I want to do now is to get a little rest at home, and then I will start out again. I am interested in the adjustment of the clearing house note, and get those enterprises in what shape I can. After things have been straightened out I do not know just what I shall do. Certainly I have been reported to become the 'coal king of the west.' I take it that the coal 'royalty' is rather complete as it is."

"No, my plans are very simple, and are not such as will be of interest to anyone. I shall straighten out my affairs, and then I can and after that will engage in such enterprise as opportunity presents. I have another offer to appear in getting into another of what is called a 'struggle for financial prominence.' Both my boys are engaged in business and are doing satisfactorily, so they probably won't need my help."

The former banker arrived in Chicago from Kansas yesterday afternoon, and was welcomed by his wife and the family of his children. The day was spent quietly at home, where several of his friends and acquaintances visited him. He told them he would not go down to his office for several days.

SAFE CRACKERS REFUSE TO BELIEVE IN SIGNS

SAN JOSE, Oct. 16.—"This safe contains books; one please close the door again, after searching." This is the sign which stood over the safe in the office of F. F. Wilkinson, a prominent attorney, yesterday night, but was no protection against an amateur crackman, who entered and did considerable damage to the safe without being able to open it. The would-be crackman had used a heavy bar of iron upon the combination, smothering and battering until he had a considerable extent, and in his endeavor to see the contents had unwittingly thrown the combination.

The "job," according to the police officers who made the investigation, gives ample evidence that it was an amateur piece of work, probably that of a hobo.

ANIMAL ACTORS PLEASE AUDIENCES AT THE BELL

Kluting's Trained Animals, hit of splendid bill at the Bell theater this week.

Cats and dogs, rabbits and pigeons make merry together at the Bell theater this week in the newest and best animal act that ever showed in vaudeville. We refer to Kluting's trained pets making their first American tour after a long season at the big Berlin Wintergarten. The exhibition is refined, interesting and educational. The little facts that this motley assembly of trained pets execute are astonishing to say the least and it is with genuine pleasure and satisfaction that this number on the bill is greeted.

The aerial finish with the pure white rabbits making a flying leap into a suspended balloon is a clever ending to a very clever act. In fact, we do not recall a better bill of vaudeville ever at this popular house than the one this week. The Seven Colonials are a distinct sensation. When one refers to acrobatics, there isn't much interest as a rule, but we'll miss our guess if this aggregation of trained athletes don't make one of the big hits of the week. They have the hand to hand work to perfection and they hop, jump and skip about one another's shoulders like boys at play and seemingly enjoy it as much. They have picked the cream of tumblers and balanceers evidently, for not one of their seven is below the startling order in the character of his work.

Bijou Russell says she is not handsome but she is fascinating and thereby is the story of her success in vaudeville. She is also a clever singer and dancer, adding the truth of her own statement in the bargain and in her "raggy" songs and catchy dancing she made a great impression with the Sunday crowds. The Four Solis Brothers from the City of Mexico introduce the Mexican Merimba, a very sweet and tuneful musical instrument on the order of the xylophone but far more productive of harmony. This quartette renders several classic and popular airs that everyone seemed to enjoy.

We all remember the Empire City Quartette and big voiced Harry Mayo, who was so prominent in it. Well, he is here and alone and delighting the Bell audiences with several selections which are all too few to satisfy.

When Violette and Olds occupy the stage, hide your private correspondence or anything else that will not do to be made public property, for these people will surely astound you with their work. It is a sensational demonstration of mental telepathy and mystifying in the extreme. While Violette sits blindfolded on the stage, Olds moves through the audience selecting various objects at random while the lady, on the platform quickly calls the object and names its various characteristics. The puzzle of the evening was her successful test when a stranger produced a one dollar bill and the lady, after a moment's hesitation, called off its serial number, one running into the millions.

The Ballet Sisters are two hard working dancers and singers, whose efforts are boundedly rewarded with merited applause. They close with one of those fantastic Russian dances that is ninety-nine per cent acrobatic, and one per cent grace, but it scored as well.

POLICE AND FRIENDS HUNT FOR ERNEST R. BROCKWAY
LOS ANGELES, Oct. 16.—The police of Los Angeles were asked today by the relatives of Ernest R. Brockway of San Diego to assist them and the San Diego police in a search for the young man, who has been missing since last Wednesday. Brockway, who is employed by the city of San Diego, came to Los Angeles on that date for a visit to friends. He dropped mysteriously from sight immediately afterward and all efforts to find him since then have failed.

POLICEMAN DOES LITTLE PLAIN CLOTHES WORK
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Policeman Stringer, in plain clothes, late last night arrested Donald Harto and Joseph Nehring and charged them at the city prison with burglary. J. J. Brady, of the Menlo hotel, reported that his room had been entered and a $60 watch taken, and Stringer in the possession of the pair taken into custody.

NEW SAVAGE PRODUCTION.
ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 16.—Henry W. Savage has offered to produce a play written by a Cornell playwright which has been approved by the local college authorities and produced by the college actors. His offer is for the purpose of developing college playwrights.

DERELICT BOAT'S CREW RESCUED

Sailors Taken From Schooner Nottingham After 8 Days Without Water.

ASTORIA, Oct. 16.—The schooner William Nottingham, which left Astoria October 2, bound for Callao, Peru, with a cargo of 3,000,000 feet of lumber, was wrecked October 3 and was towed into port yesterday by the tug Walrus, which picked up the derelict 25 miles southwest of the Columbia river, the crew having been taken off by the British schooner David Evans.

The Nottingham ran into a southwest gale on October 5 that carried away three of the masts, the foremast alone standing. The gale also carried away the deck and the galley. The vessel sprang a leak and was helpless and unmanageable in the heavy sea that was running.

The crew for five days subsisted on canned vegetables and were without water until the 13th, when the David Evans came to the rescue and the Nottingham was abandoned. All the Nottingham's boats were smashed or swept over the side save the long boat, and when the David Evans hove to for the purpose of rescuing the seas were running like moving mountains and it was impossible for the English captain to launch one to send to the schooner.

ADROIT HANDLING.
Captain Svenson his officers and men were determined to make an effort to reach safety on the Evans with the boat that had been spared them. This was an adroitly managed job, for launching the long boat to leeward, but before it could be used it capsized, throwing three seamen into the ocean, from which they were saved only by the swift work of the men on the ship. The boat was righted and hauled out, when it was again turned, and the same desperate work had to be repeated. The third time proved the lucky turn and all hands entered the small craft and pulled for the waiting Englishman a quarter of a mile to leeward.

The schooner William Nottingham was built at Ballard, Wash., in 1892, and its home port is Seattle. It had a gross tonnage of 1204, net 952; length, 60 ft.; beam, 42 ft.; depth, 16.5, and complement for a crew of 11.

KNOX NAMED FOR SUPREME BENCH

Leads List of Nine That Has Been Offered by the Gossips.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—There is no end in Washington to the speculation over the probable action of the President in filling the place on the Supreme Bench, made vacant by the death of Associate Justice that Philander C. Knox, Secretary of State, can have the place if he will accept it. Next in order, comes Attorney-General Wickersham, and then Solicitor-General Frederick W. Loomis.

A list of other probabilities to date is made up of: Secretary Nagel, of the Department of Commerce and Labor; Judge Gordon Russell of Texas, Senator Taylor, Senator Kenyon of Iowa, Senator Borah of Idaho, and Justice Swayne of New Jersey.

The idea seems to prevail that the President may determine to take the appointee from the Middle West. The late Justice Brewer and Harlan were from the Middle West, which has no representative on the court. For that reason, Secretary Nagel and Lehman, both from Missouri, are "looking up," at least for the present.

It is not probable that the President, even with the court just entering upon some important cases, will make an immediate appointment.

STABBED IN QUARREL ON BARBARY COAST

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Following a quarrel 1:30 this morning on Broadway and Kearny street, Charles Riggo, a clerk living at 945 Howard street, was stabbed in the left leg. One of his alleged assailants, Vincenzo Boari, a porter, of 1349 Green street, was arrested by Policeman Balletto and charged with assault to murder.

Riggo told the police that he had been engaged in a dispute with two men, both of whom had attacked him. One of the pair escaped and Boari was arrested as the other.

ALASKAN SAWMILLS BURN.
PRINCE RUPERT, B. C., Oct. 16.—A wireless message from Ketchikan says the Ketchikan mills burned last night. The sawmills did an extensive business supplying boxes to the fish companies operating in that district. The loss is estimated at $50,000.

TERPSICHOE AN AID TO TEACHERS

Chairman of Boston School Board Says Instructors Should Dance.

BOSTON, Oct. 16.—Chairman David E. Ellis of the Boston school committee, believes that the young school teacher is a better teacher if she attends a dance or theater occasionally, and he also declares that no school committee should object to teachers playing cards. These opinions of Chairman Ellis are brought out in answer to the decree of the board of education at Fort Cobb, Oklahoma, which requires each teacher to sign an agreement to refrain during the school term from playing cards or dancing, receiving company more than three nights a week or marrying.

"It sounds like wild west medicine," said he, "and in my opinion is an unwarranted attempt to interfere with the individual right and freedom of the people."

BROTHERS MEET AFTER 30 YEARS
One Buys Carnival Ticket From Other and Recognition Follows.

WICHITA, Kans., Oct. 16.—After thirty years of futile search for each other, Ralph and G. St. John met here yesterday. Ralph was selling tickets for a carnival company and his brother, a wealthy cattleman of Canadian, Tex., had come to see the show.

Ralph St. John ran away from his home in Akron, Ohio, when he was 11 years old. He became mentally confused and wandered over the country seeking the whereabouts of his family, tracing them as far as Baltimore and then to Paterson, N. J., where he lost trace of them. His father died 19 years ago. The brothers will go to Texas to live together.

KUBELIK IN NEW YORK FOR FAREWELL TOUR

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Jan Kubelik, violinist, opened his farewell American tour at the Hippodrome last night to the one of the largest and most enthusiastic audiences ever attending a Sunday concert in New York. He was assisted by Nathan Franko and an orchestra of sixty-five players from the Philharmonic Orchestra. Not only was every seat taken, but 400 additional chairs were placed on the stage and in the orchestra pit. The night's receipts amounted to more than $8000. Critics said that Kubelik had broadened and developed.

TEMPERANCE FOLKS DON'T WANT BEER AD TRANSFER

MERIDEN, Conn., Oct. 16.—Members of the State Woman's Christian Temperance Union, which will meet here during the latter part of the week, are much perturbed over the fact that they will have to use street car transfers advertising a popular local brand of beer.

The committee of arrangements has asked the traction company to remove the objectionable advertising during the time the convention is in session.

WOMAN ACCUSED OF STEALING $10 PIECE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—On complaint of Louis Flores of 107 Montgomery avenue, Ethel White, an attaché of the Hippodrome dance hall, was arrested today and charged at the city prison with grand larceny. Flores claims that he was charged a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for his boy who had a cold, and before the bottle was all used the boy's cold was gone. Is that not better than to pay a five dollar doctor's bill? For sale by Osgood Bros. Drug Store.

DE LA BARRA RUNS SECOND.

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 16.—The result of balloting in the electoral college in all principal cities and a number of the smaller towns indicates the election of Jose Pino Suarez to the vice-presidency by a scant majority. De la Barra was second, with Vasquez Gomez behind.

J. W. Copeland of Dayton, Ohio, purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for his boy who had a cold, and before the bottle was all used the boy's cold was gone. Is that not better than to pay a five dollar doctor's bill? For sale by Osgood Bros. Drug Store.

Speaking Bores at Banquets.

The exposition managers are sadly in need of a managing editor—a Petronius who has the wit and knowledge to select the speakers at banquets and regulate the length and scope of the addresses. It is cruelty to animals, not to say inhospitable to a distinguished guest, to compel a tired President to listen to a lot of long-winded orations at a banquet given in his honor. The speeches delivered at the state dinner given the President in the Palace Hotel was a conspicuous example of what should have been avoided. Everything save Taft's speech was malapropos. Even Mr. Moore transgressed the amenities of the occasion by making too long a speech at the opening and by talking too much afterward. Brevity was the chief merit of Dr. Benjamin Ide Wheeler's speech. It is not fair to talk a visitor to death when he has come in response to an invitation extended by the whole State. Every person present knew the President was fagged out and had a strenuous day before him on the morrow, yet he was kept till nearly 12 o'clock listening to dull, stale platitudes which nobody wanted to hear. The persons present came to see and hear President Taft, and do him honor, but they were disgusted that the President, the guest of honor, was bored to death while he was yawning to get to bed.

Such things should be avoided. They can be avoided by proper management. What is needed is a master of ceremonies with sufficient tact and discernment to arrange speaking programs so that guests of honor may not suffer from an abuse of the rites of hospitality. Windy and tiresome declamation by persons familiar to the local community should not be permitted to spoil a feast, much less distress a distinguished visitor. The edge of the reception given the President was taken off by a series of speeches notable only for length and dullness. Two years ago the President suffered the same disagreeable experience at the Fairmont Hotel banquet. But it seems that the lesson of that triumph of boredom has not penetrated the understanding of the entertaining bosses. They do everything else splendidly, but spoil the effect by devising a speaking program that makes the company groan with anguish.

It is to be hoped that affairs of this kind will be better managed in future. As a matter of course banquets will be of frequent occurrence as a part of the exposition enterprise, and some effort should be made to bring the speech-making within the limits of good taste and human endurance. Talkative bores should not be permitted to spoil every social event of importance.

The Monterey Cypress prints an excellent article entitled "Italy and the Christian Powers." It has a familiar ring, however. The same article, head and all, appeared not long ago as an editorial in THE TRIBUNE. Our Monterey contemporary appears to have been so busy with the scissors that he failed to keep in mind the commandment, "Thou shalt not steal."

The President and Annexation.

When the San Francisco Chronicle gets impressed with an idea it clings to it with curious pertinacity. It is possessed with a desire to annex the cities on the Alameda shore to San Francisco, and in season and out of season it tries to din its project in the ears of an unwilling public. It seizes upon every pretext that comes along to boost the annexation scheme.

It gave an example of this malapropos persistency when it employed what President Taft said at the cornerstone laying as an argument in favor of its pet design. It represented Taft as having favored the annexation of Oakland to San Francisco. In its eagerness to score a point the Chronicle got its facts twisted all out of shape.

President Taft's remarks had no reference to the project to annex the Alameda cities to San Francisco. When he was in Oakland in October, 1909, the President said it would be a good idea, in his opinion, for the cities on this side of the bay to get together and consolidate, seeing that they were all parts of the same urban community having a common interest and a common destiny. "By pooling your issues and working together under a single civic organization it seems to me you better grapple with the problems confronting you and develop your advantages to better purpose," he said, adding that it had occurred to him that a consolidation would be an excellent thing. Last Friday he jocularly remarked that he had poked his nose into other people's business when he was here before, but had discovered that Barkis was not willing. He meant that Berkeley had declined the suggestion.

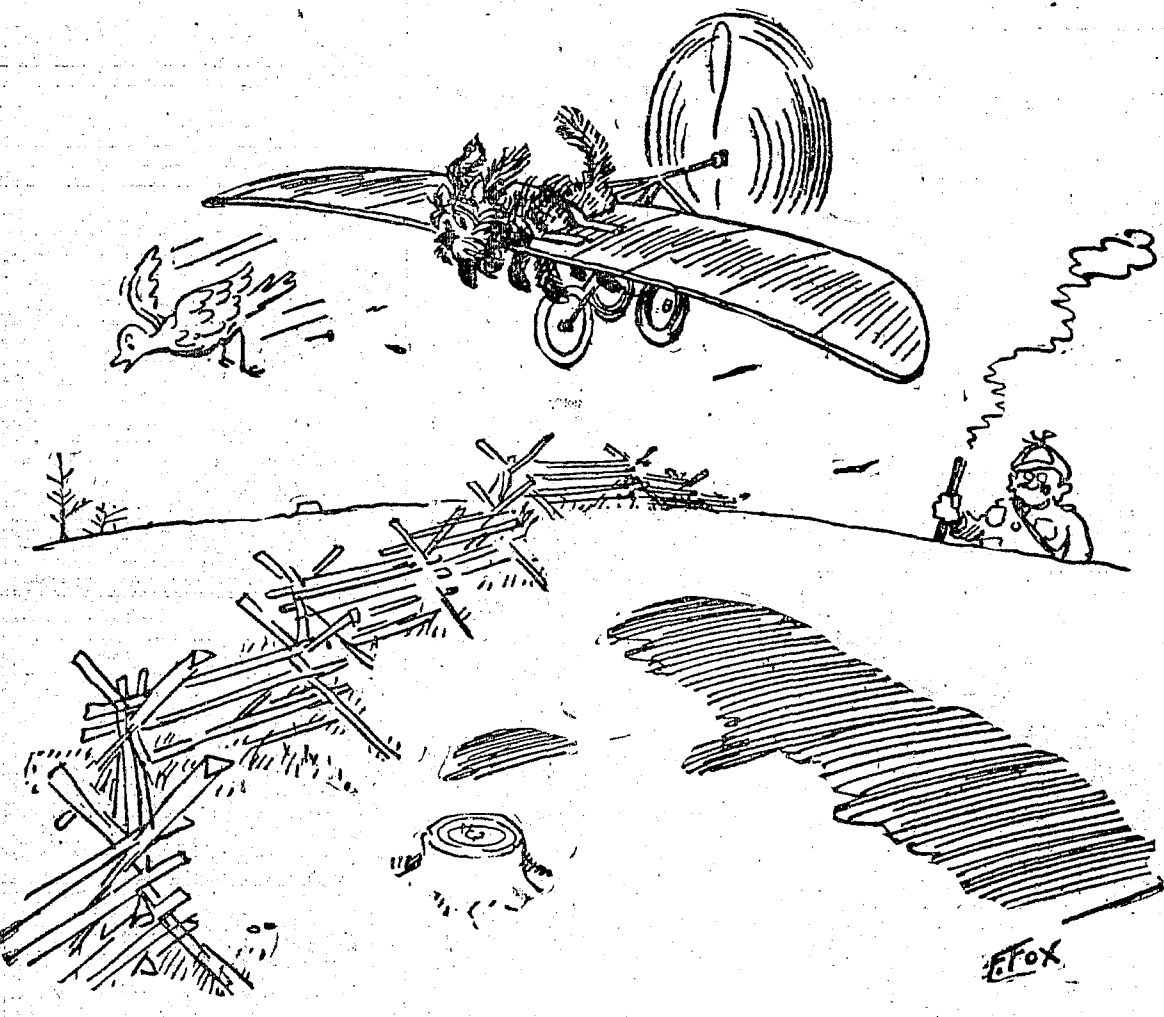

What the President said on his former visit had no reference to the project to annex Oakland to San Francisco, as the text of his speech shows. Nor was what he said last Friday intended to be an allusion to the design of San Francisco to gobble all the adjacent towns and cities.

Perhaps our San Francisco contemporary will not be satisfied with this explanation, but it is the plain truth nevertheless. It can be fair and neighborly even if the people of Oakland are not receptive to its annexation project. When the people of this city desire to be incorporated with San Francisco (if they ever do) they will insist on having a voice in naming the conditions of the alliance. They object to being treated as if they had no right to express their wishes in the matter.

It is fortunate for the suffragists that Dr. Aked did not extend his missionary work to the interior. The majorities cast against suffrage wherever he spoke proves his potency for mischief.

Although he was surfeited with attention and entertainment and doubtless fatigued by the demands on his time and patience, President Taft cannot fail to be delighted with his reception in California. His reception in Oakland and San Francisco was an ovation so spontaneous and tremendous as to excite the wonder of all who witnessed the outpouring and the pageants. Grant, Harrison, McKinley and Roosevelt were all given welcomes here that surpassed anything of the kind elsewhere, but the Taft reception went a peg beyond the honors showed any of his distinguished predecessors. It must be admitted, however, that the occasion of his visit added to the interest of his coming. All California is profoundly interested in the success of the Panama-Pacific Exposition, and every Californian knows that San Francisco would not have got the exposition had not President Taft exerted his influence in her behalf. A note of gratitude ran through the greetings extended to the President. Moreover, the weather was perfect. It called people into the open air and gave them the jubilation of animal spirits. The golden October days seem to have been fashioned to make the President's visit to California delightful. Had the weather been made to order it could not have been finer. It was propitious for the great enterprise that the President came to California to inaugurate. It was as if Providence had given a benison to the exposition, to the people of California and the statesman who holds the chair of state in this great republic.

—PHILADELPHIA EVENING TIMES.

Panama Canal Tolls.

In his speech at the Stadium in Golden Gate Park President Taft expressed a policy in regard to fixing the rate of toll for the Panama canal that ought to commend itself to every American citizen. Inasmuch as American money and enterprise had built the canal, he said, American commerce ought by right to have the chief benefit. Unless our treaty engagements with other nations forbid discrimination in favor of American ships, he proposed that American ships be exempted from paying half or all the toll exacted from the ships of other nations. If our treaty obligations forbid this form of discrimination, the same object can be attained by Congress providing a fund for paying the tolls of American ships. The tolls would be exacted at the canal, but the shipowners would have their money returned to them from the fund which it is proposed that Congress shall provide. The result will be the same as if American ships were exempted from paying toll, nor will any additional burden be placed on the taxpayers since the government is bound for the principal and interest of the canal bonds. The toll through the Suez canal is $1.50 a ton for the registered tonnage of every ship that goes through, whether she carries cargo or is in ballast. A remission of toll to an equal amount on American ships passing through the Panama canal will be a tremendous aid to the American merchant marine.

BOOKS FOR THE BLIND

Books with raised letters used by the blind are generally expensive. They have, up to the present time, been of two distinct types; those which were stereotyped, the manufacturing process being so expensive that frequent printing of new books is made almost impossible; those written by hand by some blind person who good will does not prevent him from making frequent inaccuracies, and who can make but one copy at a time, and that slowly. Mr. Ernest Vaughan, the director of the Quince-Vingts hospital of Paris has devised a press for printing books for the blind by means of which a text of irreproachable exactness can be obtained, and at a cost much less than that of either the stereotyped or the hand-written books. To place this system on the market, he has founded a society of which the celebrated writer, Anatole France, member of the Académie Française, is president.

The society proposes to provide the blind workers with books on technical subjects—necessary information in the following of their professions—catalogues, references and all the practical information which will enable them to fill positions commanding salaries as large as those drawn by workers who have the use of their eyesight, to establish free district libraries where the blind people can find the means of educating or amusing themselves. In the same way that those who can see may do, to publish and sell books and music for the use of the blind, at the most moderate prices; to give advice to any of them, and particularly to the workers, who will find them willing to give any help which they may need—except money aid, which they make it a practice never to give; and lastly, to propagate M. Vaughan's method, or any other similar method, for printing books for the blind.

The first effort of the society will expend itself on the printing of technical books, which will be sold at a minimum price, or even furnished gratuitously to the extremely poor persons, as the resources of the society will permit.—Journal of American Medical Association.

PEOPLE TALKED ABOUT

Among millionaires and their wives some of the hardest workers in the country can be found. Mrs. John Hays Hammond, the wife of the famous mining engineer, does her own housekeeping, is chairman of the woman's welfare department of the Civic Federation and writes for the magazines.

Every time President Taft finds his weight is above 300 pounds he cuts out his midday meal and between breakfast and a late dinner eats only two apples.

Louis D. Brandeis frequently wages a reform campaign in order to jog up his mind and freshen his thoughts. Although he has a tremendous law practice in Boston, one of his favorite acts is to jump out into some other state and start a movement for shortening working hours of women and children in factories in stores.

Mrs. Taft's favorite game is bridge whist, and she generally wins at it.

Senator Owens of Oklahoma is an emphatic advocate of woman suffrage. One day he made a speech before a committee of the House in favor of the cause and said, among other things: "All the good that I know was taught to me by my mother. This is one reason why I favor this reform. Another is that the good women of the world outnumber so vastly the bad ones."

Mildred Holland can make a good race any time for election to the post of "the busiest woman in the world." She is an actress, a club woman, a writer of plays, a lecturer, a traveler and a philanthropist. Among her jobs are the presidency of the Actors' Church Alliance and the vice-presidency of the Professional Woman's League.

Mrs. Leona Wells is the highest paid woman in the government service. She works for the Senate committee on military affairs and draws a total of $4500 a year.

Anna Katherine Green, who writes crackjack detective novels by the dozen, is the wife of Charles Rohlf, a designer of furniture in Buffalo, New York.—Woman's World.

Unconventionalities

"You mustn't mind my not asking you to stay to dinner, Mrs. Happendin; there is just about enough roast beef for our family."

"Yes, that's a beautiful diamond, Jack, dear—if it is a diamond. Let me see the jeweler's bill for it, please."

"Tawkins, you oughtn't to let the barber cut your hair so short. It shows the shape of your head."

"Migglesworth, old chap, talk to me a while, won't you? I'm troubled with insomnia."

"Dear Sir: In returning these sketches to you we suggest that you quit, trying to break into the magazines. See if you can't get a job in a sawmill."—Chicago Tribune.

SERMONS IN BRIEF

THE SAVING GRACE OF REALITY.
(Rev. Thomas A. Boyer, pastor of the First Christian Church.)

Among the ideas and ideals of our times, there are perhaps none that are clamoring more vociferously for recognition, than those that relate to the side of life that we are wont to designate as the "practical."

A new spirit of critical inquiry, of penetrating analysis is upon us. Especially is this true in relation to all matters of religion. Ideals that have hitherto held men in unyielding devotion are breaking up, or dropping below the horizon altogether. Men everywhere are becoming more and more impatient with that which lacks accomplishment. However alluring and rosy an ideal may seem at first flush, if in the final analysis it seems to be lacking in reality they will have none of it; it is henceforth fit only to be cast out and to be trodden under foot of men. More and more life has manifested itself in terms of reality, and more and more imaginary foes with imaginary conflicts with whatever of imaginary enmities that came of meeting and overcoming them, have had to give place to foes and conflicts and victories that have a dash of the red blood of reality running through them.

OLD methods of transportation, of plowing and tilling the soil have had to go, purely and simply because they were lacking in the medium of reality that they embodied—they were not able to deliver the goods. Darius Green's flying machine failed for the same reason. He made a motion and nobody seconded it, and as a consequence his invention became a reminiscence. A new patriotism presses upon us for the sole reason that too long we have staggered under the burden of a patriotism—so called. Equal suffrage may fall in its appeal to the popular intelligence today, but like Banquo's ghost, it will up and will not down for the obvious reason it has in it the blood of reality.

As to how much of this saving grace there is to be found in the ideals of our holy religion is readily discernible to any one who will take the time to make even a most cursory examination. The primary conception of sin, which constitutes one of its most fundamental premises, is clearly and unmistakably one of the most fundamental facts of all human consciousness. The earliest utterances of history attest a lamentable sense of shortcoming in the moral bookkeeping of mankind. A great pain murmurs through the world unmistakable as the intonation of the sea. No man can dip into Harold Begbie's "Twice Born Men," and go on unbelieving as to the absolute reality of the second great postulate of religion—namely, that of salvation. In a word, by every test of time, the religion of the Cross is gloriously vindicated; it is what it claims to be, the very quintessence of reality, and will continue to run and be glorified, and at the last will stand the one triumphant monument of the Almighty's ministering providence, towering o'er the wrecks of time.

20 YEARS AGO IN OAKLAND

The cold weather is driving the tramps into the city by dozens and before winter fairly sets in the streets will be overrun by them. On every freight train that comes into Oakland are half a dozen or more who steal rides on the brake beams from station to station.

The semi-annual examination for city teachers' certificates is being conducted in the rooms of the Board of Education today, and will be continued every day until finished. There are but four applicants taking the examinations, and all of them are young ladies.

The railroad has promised to send a detective to find that light which engulfs the depot at the end of the narrow gauge pier. In the meantime, the company's patrons are still stumbling about in the dark.

Miss Eugenia Kelly of Sacramento, and Miss Beattie McCormick of San Francisco, are the guests of Mrs. V. S. Gaskill.

Miss Libbie Moffitt has returned from Sacramento, where she has been visiting for some time past.

A wee bit of a woman, known as Gracie Plaisted, roused a thousand people to enthusiasm last night at the Tivoli Opera House and narrowly escaped reaching that point which would have permitted the critical to call her an artist. The opera was "Die Fledermaus," and in the last act Miss Plaisted acted and sang with a vim and dash that was surprising.

If the present good intentions of the City Council and the Board of Education are carried out, Oakland will soon have some of the most magnificent, as well as substantial and roomy school buildings in the United States.

A very pleasant house-warming was given at the new residence of Mr. and Mrs. Trombley on Summer street, Saturday evening. A large number of guests were present from Oakland and San Francisco. A bounteous supper was provided and the guests amused themselves in the usual way until a late hour.

The North Berkeley Tennis Club as an athletic organization is no more. The members met last Saturday night at the home of Mrs. J. E. Kelsey and reorganized for the season.

W. J. Dingee, the enterprising real estate man, returned yesterday from his three weeks' trip in the East. He was accompanied by his wife.

The work of laying the rails on the Sessions-Vandercreek line to East Oakland was begun yesterday afternoon at the corner of Eighth and Webster streets. A large force is pushing the work.

The homie Scots of the community are looking forward with much pleasure to an entertainment that is to be given on the evening of October 30 at the Oakland theater. Findley MacGregor, the great Scotch vocalist, instrumentalist, mimic and artist, will give one of his excellent specialty performances, and will be supported by good talent in a concert which will crown the festivities of the evening.

Any man or syndicate agreeing to build a big, first-class hotel in Oakland can have a generous bonus, and an offer has been made to give a bond that 6 per cent shall be paid on the investment. What better opportunity for a safe investment exists anywhere?

The entertainment which will be given in the Park Opera House on the 30th and 31st inst. by the young ladies of the Alameda Flower Mission promises to be a very grand affair.

The members of the Occidental Athletic Club of San Francisco were disappointed last evening. The finish fight between Billy Mahan and Billy Maher, the Australian shadow, was postponed. The address of George E. de Golla at the recent social session in honor of the Incoog Company has been taken about so much during the past week that THE TRIBUNE repeats it in full.

Ambrose O'Neill of San Francisco has moved into one of the new houses recently finished on Haste street.

James L. Henry, a mining expert from Arizona, visited the University yesterday afternoon. He is interested in a new contractor and hopes to get a patent on his machine.

PROSAIC DEATHS

It was Lord Lytton, having in mind a reckless expedition, who declared of the individual chosen for the part—"A humorous daredevil, the very man to suit my purpose."

Something akin to that spirit leads to the choice of those fearless mortals who climb to dizzy heights, or rush at breakneck speed about a racecourse. Literally, they take their lives in their hands, and they pluck ephemeral fame by courting death.

Sometimes Fate, which is no respecter of persons, reserves for them an inglorious end. Like the great general who went uninjured through fifty campaigns only to be potted by a careless hunter of quail—they are made the jest of chance. The most insignificant accident seems to be held for them for the snuffing out of their careers.

It was a queer decree that led to the fatal injury of John Hayes, San Francisco's steeplejack, a few days ago. As a member of the fire department, he gained local celebrity as an expert in climbing ladders, and scores of times he had risked his life, but had dropped in safety from high buildings into a net below. Yet when he fell from a "three-foot fence" he fractured his skull.

Likewise, there was Louis Strang—the speed fiend—who was first to start in the 500-mile race at Indianapolis. In order to be entered among the daredevils who made up the list, he had to drive his automobile at the rate of not less than seventy-five miles an hour; and it is a matter of comment that he had made more than a hundred miles an hour.

As a distance runner, he was accounted a careful man, notwithstanding the hair-raising speed at which his machine traveled. Yet Fate decreed, when Strang, creeping at the rate of less than six miles an hour, turned out for a wagon, that he should plunge over an embankment to his destruction.

Very curious are the pranks of Fate. The instances cited prove the rule. If Lytton chose the man to suit the purpose, then Fate itself oftentimes appears in the role of a "humorous daredevil."—Seattle Times.

EUROPE IN '48 AND NOW

Historic parallels are not always parallel. Commenting upon the fact that London newspapers are comparing the present troubled conditions throughout Europe with those that produced the revolution of 1848, a writer in the New York World summarizes the events of the great uprising of 63 years ago, which brought constitutional government and a measure of political liberty to several nations.

In that memorable year Louis Philippe, who had resisted the demands of the French people for an extension of the franchise, was deprived of his throne and banished. In Saxony and Wurtemberg constitutions were granted. In Prussia a new constitution, with suffrage for every man of 24, was gained. Emperor Francis of Austria was forced to abdicate, and the Hungarian revolt, led by Kossuth, was suppressed only with difficulty.

Italy nearly freed herself from Austrian domination.

Those were a few of the notable events of the political revolution of 1848. The struggle was mainly political in character. It was directed mainly against the forms of government. It had to precede the struggle of 1911, which is mainly economic in character, and which is being waged by the European proletariat for food and clothing, for better conditions of life, for a lowering of the price of necessities. Particular forms of government, monarchial or republican, have less interest today for the masses than they had in 1848. Kings and parliaments are not necessarily guaranteed by republics. A growing recognition of this fact is one different between the revolution of 1848 and the events of 1911.—Boston Globe.

ANNOUNCE COMING OF REV. H. JUMP

Formal Notice Given of Acceptance; New Pastor Coming Soon.

Formal announcement was made yesterday to the First Congregational church congregation that Rev. Herbert J. Jump, now occupying a pulpit in New Britain, Conn., had accepted the call extended to him two weeks ago by the pulpit committee and within a short time he will arrive in Oakland to fill the vacant position.

As stated exclusively last Saturday in THE TRIBUNE, Dr. Jump will be the new pastor of the First Congregational church, occupying the position of permanent head, the first the congregation had had since the leave-taking of Dr. Brown. Rev. Dr. Jump was in Oakland for three Sundays during the latter part of the summer, and so favorably did he impress the church members that he was unanimously decided to tender him the pastorate.

He is a young man and one thoroughly in touch with the church and its needs and possibilities of the day. He is identified with many civic activities and is considered to be one of the most progressive men in the Congregational church.

SULLAVOU TRIAL BEGINS TODAY

Testimony in Mysterious Murder Case Being Taken Before Jury.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16. — Mrs. Lillian Sullavou was placed on trial in Judge Dunne's court this morning for the murder of her husband, Frank Sullavou, which occurred on July 21 of this year, at the family home, 1708 Hayes street. There were several mysterious circumstances surrounding the affair. The patrol ambulance was summoned on the morning following the murder, and on arriving being in question and Sullavou found dead in a pool of blood in the kitchen. His wife declared that she had returned home and found him ill and had procured a mat-

The investigation by the police showed that the deceased had received a stab wound in the leg and had bled to death. The officers arrested Mrs. Sullivan.

ISLAND CITY ELECTRICAL COMPANY IS ATTACHED

ALAMEDA, Oct. 16.—The Island City Electrical Company was attached today on five claims aggregating about $40,000 and preferred by Alfred Cords, the May deil Company, Otto Beendel, W. M. Hunsicker and Carl Strom. The firm is composed of W. V. Kemp, K. W. Marten and G. V. Marten. Kemp recently figured in a sensational domestic row, in which his wife accused him of having an affair with the person of Mrs. H. Isbell, an Alabama divorcee. K. W. Marten, accompanied the late Guy Landsburg to Seattle.

Francisco on the night that Landaburo disappeared. Marten said today that he had lost about $6000 in the business, and laid the blame largely on Kemp, Kemp in return accusing Marten of wrecking the business.

S. FOSTER KELLY FAILS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—S. Foster Kelly, who was concerned with the kidnapping of the children of Mrs. Ivy Ma Henry, charged with concealing persons entitled to the right of habeas corpus, failed to appear in Judge Shortall's court today.

SOCIETY

MISS ELIZABETH LATHAM made Miss Grace Layman the guest of honor this afternoon at a prettily arranged affair which had the Claremont County Club for its setting. An elaborate luncheon, artistically appointed, with decorations in rose shades, was followed by an afternoon at the card tables, where bridge was the chosen game.

Miss Layman wore a very dainty gown in the pink shades and the guests wore some charming, summer frocks.

Miss Latham is the attractive daughter of Mrs. Henry Mills Bull, one of the most gracious of our local matrons.

Today's guests included, among others, Miss Grace Layman, Miss Hazel Layman, Miss Ruth Hall, Miss Dorothy Taylor, Miss Mildred Boyne, Miss Nelly Adams, Miss Marie Dieckmann, Mrs. W. T. Day, Mrs. Frank Jackson, Miss Bly Scribner, Mrs. John Marshall.

RECEPTION AT CONNOR VILLA.

Mrs. John Alexander Connor, one of the season's brides, entertained informally at her pretty home in Laurel place, Fruitvale, last Saturday night, nearly a dozen of her friends being present. She was assisted in receiving by her sisters, Miss Clara Madden and Miss Helen Madden.

No set color scheme was used in decorating the house. In the living room and reception hall were hanging baskets of ferns and potted plants, while in the dining room corseilles and candelabra with gypsy flairs, were used effectively. During the supper the lights were turned off, the subdued glow of pink candelabra alone lighting the table.

The Connor home is one of the prettiest in the city and was designed and fitted up for his bride by Mr. Connor before their marriage in August. Mrs. Connor is already distinguishing herself as a charming hostess. Her guests Saturday evening were:

Miss Margaret Slavich, Miss Minnie Tupper, Miss Penelope Bruce, Miss Edna Peck, Miss Louise Rush, Miss Helen Smith, Miss Freda Schellenberg, Mrs. C. B. Clark, Mrs. Clara Madden and Miss Helen Madden.

TO GIVE RECEPTION.

Miss Lillian Samuels, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Samuels of 1269 West street, who has announced her engagement to Nelson Gorsinkle of Portland, Ore., will give a large reception on the afternoon of October 22 from 2 to 6.

Assisting the hostess in receiving her friends will be Miss Ruby Reigelman, Miss Hortense Gyle, Mrs. H. J. Samuels, Mrs. S. Samuels, Miss Beatrice Marks.

OCTOBER WEDDING.

Miss Grace Renner's marriage to Gerald Brooks on October 23, will be attended

MRS. HARRISON JAMES HUNKINS, who was hostess at a prettily appointed dinner given at her mother's home.

ed by about 60 guests, who will witness the ceremony performed at the Renner home by Rev. Frank S. Brush.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Renner of Alameda. Brooks is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brooks. Both families are prominent in Alameda and the marriage will be an important event in social circles. In the meantime the popular bride-to-be is receiving many enjoyable social attentions. On Friday Miss Maude Fischer of Alameda will claim her as special guest at an informal affair for which a score of mutual friends are bidden. Mrs. John Lafayette Ivan also is to be a hostess for Miss Renner. Mrs. Ivan has recently returned from her honeymoon trip, her marriage having been an elaborate September event. She was formerly Miss Edith Cameron, an Alameda belle.

EVENTS OF THIS WEEK.

Among the events on the social calendar for this week is the tea to be given by Mrs. M. Lee Cole Bonham tomorrow; the bridge party which Mrs. James Robert Kenna is to give for her sister, Miss Ruth Hall, and Miss May Bissell, fiancée of her brother, Dr. Channing Hall; Mrs. Emma E. Kenna's reception party, the Claremont Club card party and the Henshaw dance at the Home Club, besides several teas for debutantes, including Miss Marie Tyson, Miss Mitha McMahon, Miss Nellie Adams, Miss Roberta Lion and Miss Wynne Martin.

CARD AFTERNOON.

On Thursday afternoon Miss Belle Hokanson will entertain about forty of her friends at the home of her parents in Steinway Terrace. Cards will be the diversion for the afternoon.

Miss Hokanson recently announced her engagement to Edward D. Harmon, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. P. Harmon of Fruitvale.

AT CARD TABLES.

Mrs. Dickinson was a hostess recently at a card party given in honor of Mrs. Macdonough of Kansas City and the Ryder of Los Angeles. She was assisted by Miss Trowbridge, Miss Alice Williams and Miss Wilodine Dickinson. Among those present were: Mrs. Osborn, Mrs. Hastings, Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Macdonough, Mrs. Kenna, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Ryder, Mrs. Macdonough.

RETURN FROM HONEYMOON.

Miss Emma Schenckings of 331 Hillside avenue was married on September 30, to David C. Nethercott, the latter's father, Elder C. J. Nethercott, performing the marriage ceremony. The couple have just returned from their honeymoon and will make their home in this city, where young Nethercott is in the employ of Wells-Fargo.

CARD HOSTESS TOMORROW.

Mrs. James Robert Kenna is to be hostess at a card party tomorrow for her sister, Miss Ruth Hall. As beautiful Charlotte Hall Mrs. Kenna was a bride of the spring.

CARD PARTY.

Mrs. Carl Anderson, formerly Miss Ruth Waterman, will open her new home on Fourth Avenue Heights this week for the first of a series of card parties which she will give this year.

DANCING CLUB.

The Saturday Night Club, in whose membership are nearly 200 young folk, has planned to give the second assembly of the season for the evening of October 28.

RETURN FROM SOUTH.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyler Henshaw, who have been the guests of Mrs. William G. Henshaw in Santa Barbara, have returned home.

TO BE ENTERTAINED.

Miss Florence McDowell will be among the brides-elect to share in the season's social compliments. Engagement to Elmer E. Philbrick being a recent announcement.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McDowell of Filbert street, while the bridegroom-to-be is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Philbrick of Alameda.

TO VISIT IN EAST.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Warner will spend part of the winter in the East, visiting for some length in Ohio. They will close their home in Piedmont during their absence.

LEAVES FOR SOUTHERN HOME.

Mrs. Florence West, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Russell Knowland, has left for her home in Virginia, to the residence of her friends here.

IN MILL VALLEY.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mastick and Miss Winifred Mastick are spending a few weeks at their summer home in Mill Valley.

GO SOUTH TODAY.

Judith B. F. Bergen and Mrs. Bergen are leaving today for the South, visiting at Pasadena, Redlands and San Diego.

WELCOMED HOME.

Mr. and Mrs. Beach Carter Soule will be welcomed home to Piedmont after an enjoyable outing in Humboldt county.

SCHEDULED WEDDINGS.

Miss Adèle Louise Alexander, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George E. Alexander of Hayward, and John E. Bowersmith will be married on the evening of Wednesday, October 18, at 8 o'clock.

Miss Alexander is a talented musician. Her many friends are rejoicing that the young couple will make their future home in Oakland.

A wedding of November will be that of Dr. E. B. Wright, formerly of Oakland, and Miss Georgia M. Ellingham of Mariposa.

TEA ON THURSDAY.

Mrs. Mary Smille will give a tea on Thursday at her lakeside-district home, to which she has asked a large number of the younger set.

TO GIVE MUSICALS.

Mrs. Ralph Kirkham Blair and Mrs. Harvey Toy will entertain together tomorrow evening at a musicale to be given at Mrs. Toy's home in Alameda. A large number of musical folk will attend.

ENTERTAINS TODAY.

Mrs. Louis Rison Meade was a hostess today for her sister, Miss Ruth Seder, and for Mrs. William Hough (Amelia Simpson). Forty guests were entertained at the bridge tables at the Fairmont hotel. Miss Seder's marriage this Wednesday is an event of importance on the social calendar.

MARRIED THIS MONTH.

Miss Margaret Dewald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Dewald of this city, was married on October 6 to Walter G. Kierschmidt of Claremont.

STOW-MACLEWEE NUPTIALS.
An engagement which is proving of interest to many is that of Miss Olive Stow, a beautiful belle of Berkeley, and Stanley Ward MacLewee. Miss Stow is the daughter of the late W. W. Stow Jr. and Mrs. Stow, formerly of Oakland, but now of Berkeley. She is the granddaughter-

The Girl Behind the Counter

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

(Copyright: 1911: By Lillian Russell.)

IT IS remarkable how many pretty, happy girls stand behind counters of department stores all day, not being permitted by the managers to sit down even for a moment, excepting at their lunch hour, and yet we see few unhealthy looking girls.

I have asked why this condition exists, amid the dust of the floors, the different thoughts directed toward them, and the unclean things they are obliged to handle. I find that our girls are thinking for themselves, resignedly making necessity a choice.

Our girls have the advantage of the newspapers, the picture shows, and the vaudeville within their meager means. They walk when they can and laugh much. They talk little scandal and look on the bright side of things and conditions. I have learned this by questions and observation. They use cold creams and much soap and water. They go to bed early and rise early. The walk to and from business gives them fresh air. Even the old girls who have been in the shops for years look young for their age. I glory in my American sisters, for we who work are all sisters, and I would do anything in my power to help them to more happiness and beauty.

Never fear water in any form; drink it and use it. Water and salt are two of God's greatest gifts to mankind. Salt is a great disinfectant, so, girls, use it to clean the teeth. Bathe your eyes with warm water containing a pinch of salt, with or without an eye cup. Use it for a gargle in case of an inflamed throat. Rub your body with salt in the bath.

Salt is inexpensive and you who cannot afford more expensive luxuries of the toilet will find that it will take the place of most of them. Then do not fear the talcum powder. Keep a little in your pocket with a little absorbent cotton instead of the regulation powder puff. The puff becomes soiled and may gather microbes, but you can change your cotton daily. Always use a clean bit of cotton.

Then at night put on a pure cold cream. You can use old-fashioned mutton tallow, dried out, as our grandmothers used to do, and if your face becomes oily put more salt in the bathing water and use it cold to close the pores. In that way you can keep clean and happy—a defense against microbes.

Difficult as it may seem, believe the world to be your friend and treat it accordingly.

Remember: As the wish is ever father to the thought, you have only to desire to be beautiful to be so.

MAE—Deep breathing should never be neglected, as it forms the greater part of the secret of health and beauty. If you will send me a note with a self-addressed envelope I will send you complete instructions for a fine set of deep breathing exercises and the simple methods by which a number of my friends enlarge their busts.

JULIA—The dark circles under your eyes are indication of a sluggish condition of the blood. Live in the fresh air as much as possible and take plenty of physical exercise. Sleep from eight to ten hours a day and eat well-cooked, nourishing and easily digested foods. I also suggest that you massage around the eyes with a bit of skin food for about five minutes a day. After massaging, dampen a cloth in cold water and lay it on the eyes for a few minutes. If you will send me a stamped envelope I shall be glad to send you the recipe for the skin food and massage.

GRETTCHEN—Yellow vaseline is one of the best applications for scant eyelashes. Melt a little of the vaseline, dip the point of a tiny camel's hair brush into this and rub gently along the roots. Apply the vaseline at night. Be careful that not a particle enters the eye, as oil irritates it.

MRS. H. W.—Castile soap usually agrees with a thin, sensitive skin. To test a soap touch the cake to the tongue—if the taste is not too strong or sharp the soap may be used on the face with impunity. Under separate cover I am sending you instructions for deep breathing and a good face bleach.

CONSTANT READER—A surgical operation is the only remedy for the hump on your nose. However, I advise you to consult your family physician before having an operation performed. Remember, in considering the surgical method

E. G.—If you will send me the necessary self-addressed stamped envelope I shall be glad to send you an excellent lotion to close the pores.

M. P.—For excessive perspiration under the arms mix common baking soda in equal proportions with plain unscented talcum powder. Bathe under the arms with warm water and a pure soap and then rub on a little alcohol, finally dusting with this baking soda and talcum mixture.

L. M.—If the palms of your hands perspire, it is often an expression of extreme nervousness or it may be purely local. Eau de Cologne containing 5 per cent of diluted acetic acid sprinkled on the palms and allowed to dry may be all that is required, but, in addition

FRANK—If your nose is red avoid spicy foods, rich meats, liquors, tea and coffee. Keep your ankles and feet warm. Saturate a piece of absorbent cotton with the following lotion and bind on the nose nightly. One dram muric acid, two ounces of glycerin, three ounces rosewater. Dissolve the muric acid in the glycerin and the rosewater.

F.—Henna tea is used for darkening red hair. The henna leaves vary greatly in strength. Two ounces of henna leaves, steeped in a pint of boiling water for an hour and then allowed to get cold should make a strong stain. However, if this is not enough, henna powder can be added to the leaves and steeped with it. After the hair has been thoroughly washed apply the tea by the aid of a small sponge. Let it stay on several hours, then wash off. The henna will sometimes stain the scalp, but the stain can easily be removed by soap and water.

Women in the News Today

SANTA BARBARA, Oct. 16.—Following recent cable dispatches to the effect that Mrs. William Miller Graham, vivacious and brilliant wife of a California oil king, had written a play and was preparing under the tutelage of a Parisian dramatist to present it with herself in the leading role, comes the announcement that she will return from Europe early next month and will probably make her first appearance on the stage in her native country.

Before departing for London early last spring Mrs. Graham admitted that she was working on a story that she hoped to have staged, but said it would not be ready for production for more than a year.

That she had sought the advice of David Belasco in New York and a French playwright in Paris she did not deny. As a result news that she was about ready to produce it did not come as a surprise.

Mrs. Graham is said to have remarkable ability as an actress. Her friends say she has always had an ambition to appear before the footlights. In fact, she has studied the art for several years under the best in the profession of this country and Europe.

Her talent has been noticed by Montet of W. W. Stow, for whom Stow lake and Gate park was named and who was a pioneer of California. She is a student of Miss Head's school and is very popular with the younger set. MacLewee is a real estate man and is a member of a New York family. He is prominent in musical circles. He is a member of the Orpheus Club and of the Nile Club quartet.

No marriage date has been set as yet.

NOVEMBER WEDDING.

The marriage of Miss Bessie McFarland and Frederick Kitchener is to take place November 9. Mrs. Oliver Fletcher (Gladys Church) is to be matron of honor and R. Kitchener will attend his brother as best man. Further details of the wedding have not yet been definitely perfected. The bride-to-be is one of the prettiest girls of Alameda and has been the recipient of many complimentary affairs since the announcement of her engagement.

FRIDAY NIGHT CLUB DANCES.

The announcement that the Friday Night Club will send out invitations this winter for a series of assemblies is being welcomed by society. The subscription list will number about four hundred and includes many married couples as well as the belles and beaux of the smart set. The first assembly is scheduled for December 1 at the Home Club house. The other dates are January 8 and February 5. The patronesses who are still perfecting the details are Mrs. E. M. Walsh, Mrs. T. C. Coogan, Mrs. W. H. Chickering and Mrs. D. H. Mathes.

cto friends who have seen her in amateur productions given at her million-dollar home in Santa Barbara's fashionable suburb.

Woman's Rights.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—"A woman is perfectly justified in drinking beer, wine or any alcoholic liquor, either publicly or privately, providing there is no infringement on the statutes of the community. Her morals or her manners will not suffer from a temperate use of stimulants. It is much worse for her to smoke, or even to dress loudly, than to drink."

All of which are the sentiments of Dr. A. E. Wasson, rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Newark. The other day Dr. Wasson remarked to the State convention of New Jersey liquor dealers: "I would rather see a woman drinking a glass of beer than parading the board walk in a hobble skirt."

When seen today Dr. Wasson took an even more emphatic mental plunge from the waterworks. "Of course there is no reason why both men and women should not drink," he exclaimed. "Both religion and morality have always and everywhere looked on a moderate indulgence in alcoholic beverages as innocent and proper. People have as much right to drink them as they have to drink water. The spectacle of prohibitionist intemperance in everything but liquor would repel any sensible, thoughtful person from their crowd."

Truly Shattuck III

BALTIMORE, Oct. 16.—Miss Truly Shattuck is in a serious condition at Johns Hopkins Hospital. Miss Shattuck was taken to the hospital Thursday afternoon suffering from a form of blood congestion that has puzzled the specialists. Drs. Harvey Cushing and Thomas F. Fulcher, in whose care she has been since that time.

While Miss Shattuck was playing in Philadelphia two weeks ago the first trace of the disorder showed itself. At that time she complained of a slight pain in her head, and a few days later suffered from a numbing pain in her right arm as if it were affected with rheumatism. Last Monday night the same pain she had experienced in her head and arm attacked one of her legs. The congestion seems to have paralyzed the leg, at the same time causing intense pain in the head. The trouble has not yielded to treatment, and fear is felt for her recovery.

Waited 22 Years

ALAMEDA, Oct. 16.—Parted twenty-two years ago by a lovers' quarrel, Miss Anna E. Luce of Camden, Maine, and William P. Robinson of 1444 Cottage avenue, Alameda, met recently and renewed their courtship, with the result that they were made man and wife by the Rev. H. S. Feix at his home in Alameda last night. When Robinson quarreled with pretty Miss Luce nearly a quarter of a century ago he vowed never to see her again. Look for a train for the west, landed in San Francisco and went into business. Ten years later he married, his wife dying ten years ago.

A few months ago Robinson learned, through a friend from his old home in Maine, that Anna Luce had never married, and that she had the memory of her first sweetheart.

Robinson wrote to her. She answered and the couple kept up a correspondence that resulted in Miss Luce promising to come to California.

She arrived last night and Robinson met her at the train. They went to the home of the Rev. Mr. Feix, who was expecting them, had the long-delayed marriage ceremony performed and then went to Robinson's home.

And They'll Vote
KANSAS CITY, Oct. 16.—Women will vote for presidents, congressmen and other public officials in China if the revolutionary uprising now disturbing the country is successful, according to the statements made here by K. S. Wong of San Francisco, C. S. Yook and O. W. Yang of Berkeley, Cal. The three are traveling over the country with Dr. Sun Yat Sen, said to be the leader of the revolution, who was in Kansas City for a time yesterday. He left early today for Chicago, but his companions remained to discuss the new movement with the Young Chinese here. They left last night for St. Louis, where they will work for a few days and then join Dr. Sun in Chicago.

C. S. Yook, who is secretary of the Young China Association in this country, while in Kansas City said: "There are three subjects which we use in our lectures about the country: 'Put Down the Old Government,' 'Construct a New Government for China,' 'Make It a Republic,' and 'Be Socialistic in Your Ideas.'"

Cupid on Wheels

DENVER, Oct. 16.—The recent wedding of Carl Yeager of the St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco, and Miss Goldie Greenough of Denver was the culmination of a seven-day romance. Miss Greenough and her mother left for San Francisco three weeks ago.

Two young men occupied a section opposite the Greenoughs in the Pullman. Carl Yeager was one. Mrs. Greenough and daughter were willing away the tedious hours by playing cards. Yeager wore a Masonic emblem. Mrs. Greenough was wearing a Shriners emblem which belongs to her husband. The ties of fraternalism paved the way to acquaintanceship, and Yeager and his companion were invited to join the Greenoughs in whilst.

The acquaintanceship led to friendship between Yeager and Miss Greenough. The friendship ripened into love, and the sequel occurred in San Francisco two days after they reached there.

MARITAL JARS EXPOSED IN COURT

Prominent Alameda Woman
Tells Judge Waste Tale of Domestic Woe.

Wife of Well Known Railway
Official Seeks Divorce and Alimony.

Between sobs and with tears streaming down her cheeks Florence Plummer McIlroy of Alameda today told to Superior Judge William H. Waste the details of her shattered marital life with Joseph A. McIlroy, general freight agent of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad in San Francisco, basing her story upon the allegations of cruel and inhuman treatment confined in her complaint for a divorce. Mrs. McIlroy was attractively but simply gowned, and presented a very winning appearance on the witness stand while testifying in her own behalf. She broke down repeatedly while telling the Court of her unhappy domestic relations with McIlroy during the brief period that they lived together following an auspicious wedding, and there were times when she was compelled to take several minutes of the Court's time to compose her emotions so that she could relate her troubles. McIlroy is opposing the divorce and asks for no further relief. While his wife was on the stand he sat with his lawyers, with folded arms and stared at Mrs. McIlroy while she was testifying. He was just as cool and collected as his wife was emotional and intermittently hysterical.

TELLS OF TROUBLES.

The couple were married in 1910 and immediately after the wedding they went to spend their honeymoon, traveling to Del Monte, San Diego, Los Angeles and other places. Mrs. McIlroy told the Court that the second day after the ceremony McIlroy abused her over a trivial matter and that from that time on whenever she refused to do as he wished he would curse her, call her ugly names and not infrequently resort to physical violence. She testified that while they were temporarily living at Mill Valley subsequent to the return from the honeymoon trip McIlroy abused her over the laundry bill, because she cooked sweet potatoes instead of white, for leaving a window open and for other like trivial matters that crept into her management of the home.

One evening, the wife charged, McIlroy rose from his chair at the dinner table in a rage and dragged his wife to a French window that she neglected to open, when she refused to close it upon his vulgar demand. He tried to force her to close the window, the witness testified, and when she could not do that he threw her clear through the window with such violence that had it not been for the railing around the porch she would have gone clear over.

THREW HER AGAINST BED.

Mrs. McIlroy also related to the Court that her husband on another occasion threw her against a bed and that while they were living in San Francisco he assaulted her because she had failed to answer his telephone call during the day. She explained, according to her testimony, that the telephone was out of order, but this did not pacify McIlroy.

"He told me that I was no better than a common woman of the street," Mrs. McIlroy testified, "and that in time he would become a father, to which he alluded in a vulgar way."

A few days later, Mrs. McIlroy testified, she told her husband that this insult was more than she could bear, and that immediately afterwards she packed her personal effects and returned to the home of her parents in Alameda.

Mrs. McIlroy is the daughter of George E. Plummer, a wealthy resident of Encinitas, Cal., whose home is on San Antonio avenue. Since filing her suit for divorce Mrs. McIlroy has become the mother of a daughter, who is now five months old. Mrs. McIlroy asks the Court in addition to a divorce $15 a month as alimony and an additional $42 a month for the maintenance and support of the child, together with its custody.

When court was resumed this afternoon Mrs. McIlroy took the stand again for cross-examination by the defense.

ALAMEDA PYTHIAN SISTERS
PLAN WHIST TOURNAMENT

ALAMEDA, Oct. 16.—The regular monthly whist tournament of the Pythian Sisters will be given Saturday evening, October 21, at the Pythian Castle, Oak street, near Sixth. A handsome hand painted prize will be awarded to the winning players.

Prizes are now on exhibition in the show windows of Binder's drug store. The committee in charge is composed of Mrs. C. L. Bore, Mrs. E. A. Hartley and Mrs. M. J. Barry.

'DIP' STEALS MAN'S PURSE
ON CROWDED STREET CAR

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Joseph Miles of 3761 Army street, had his purse, containing $20, taken from him while on a car at the ferry late last night. He did not discover his loss until a conductor told him that he had seen two men jostle him. He then found that his money was gone and notified the police, the carman giving a description of the culprits.

ELEANOR SEARS ENTERS INTO YEAR'S "TRIAL ENGAGEMENT"

NEWPORT, Oct. 16.—Harold Sterling Vanderbilt and Miss Eleanor Sears have entered into a "trial engagement" to last for a period of one year. This is the confidential announcement made by Mrs. Frederick R. Sears of Boston, mother of the young woman, whom society looks on with animated interest as having won the heart of the younger son of William K. Vanderbilt.

The terms of the "trial engagement," says Mrs. Sears' confidant, will not expire until next summer, so that a public announcement that the couple are engaged is not considered likely before the time is up. Should the young pair conclude to call it off it may be there never will be any public acknowledgment that there was an engagement.

When Miss Sears was in Newport this season she was constantly attended by young Vanderbilt, and together they took part in motoring, yachting, tennis playing and other sports. Miss Sears visited Vanderbilt's mother, Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, at Marble Hall. Vanderbilt's duties at the Grand Central station, New York, keep him fully occupied.

DRASTIC ACTION

Arrest Confronts Owners of Property in Matter of Squirrel Poisoning.

J. C. Hayes, supervising inspector of the work now being carried on for the destruction of rodents in this county, under the auspices of the Board of Supervisors, in conjunction with the federal officers, is under instructions of Dr. Blue, who is in charge of all the work, to have owners of property in the county, and some of their names have already been handed to the district attorney and will be called to explain why they have disregarded the orders of the federal and state authorities in making his necessary efforts to prevent the introduction of the bubonic plague into this county.

For three days last week Mr. Hayes was in the interior of the county giving orders of infected property the last notice they would get to commence the work of destruction of the rodents before they would be called into court by the district attorney. Quite a number explained that they had been backward in performing their duty for one or another reason, but that they would attend to it immediately. This morning Hayes received several letters from other parties setting forth a similar state of facts and still further assuring the superintendent that they had already entered upon the work of extermination.

The United States Training Camp for the carrying out of the destruction of squirrels, which has heretofore been located at Decoto, where there will be from fifteen to thirty men stationed engaged in the work in what is known as the free zone, extending from Cragmont to Upper Fruitvale. There will be an extension of the life of the appointees for the city who are engaged in the latter section to enable them to act in conjunction with the federal officials, so that they may be able to take up the work after the federal employees have been removed.

MAN ACCIDENTALLY
SHOTS HIMSELF TWICE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—While fooling with a .38-caliber revolver last night Joseph Lese of 138 Ney street, shot himself in the left hand and left leg. He was hurried to the German hospital and the police notified, but Detective Drolette, on investigation, satisfied himself that the case was one of accident.

TRACTION COMPANY MAKES
APPLICATION FOR FRANCHISE

Plans Street Railway From the Northern Boundary Line of Berkeley to That of Alameda County

At a meeting of the Board of Supervisors this morning the Oakland Traction Company made application for a street railway franchise beginning at the intersection of northern boundary line of the city of Berkeley with the center line of the Arlington road to its intersection with the northern boundary line of the county of Alameda.

County Clerk Cook said that Attorney Harmon Ball, representing the company, had informed him that he would meet the board and explain the purpose of the application any time the latter might decide upon. The life of the franchise sought is to be fifty years. The application was referred to the franchise committee.

The application of Peter F. Donovan, 1314 Eighteenth street, to be appointed one of the bridge tenders of the bridges on Oakland harbor was filed.

TO LAY KEEL OF NEW COLLIER ON WEDNESDAY

MARE ISLAND, Oct. 16.—The new collier Jupiter's keel is to be laid, according to the announcement of Naval Constructor Thomas Ruhm, on next Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. President Taft was invited to be present and to officiate in the ceremonies attendant on the laying, but lack of time prevented. There will be no official ceremony in connection with the work.

was sadly in need of assistance.

The application for relief of Mary Freeman for the support of her three children, half-orphan, who reside at 712 1/2 Third street, was referred to the Associated Charities. Similar applications were similarly disposed of on the part of Joseph Burke, residing at 699 San Pablo avenue, and Charles Kell, 2221 Ellis street, Berkeley. A fourth application from Samuel O'Farrell of Livermore was referred to Supervisor Murphy.

County Recorder E. F. Garrison filed his report for the quarter ending September 30, 1911. It showed receipts in the sum of $301,378.71 and disbursements of $316,592.33. The floating indebtedness of the county was shown to be $16,605.48. There are outstanding school district bonds to the amount of $2,103,800.

Liquor licenses were granted as follows: Edward Urfur, Alvarado; John Bauman, Irvington; Helwig & Drury, Decoto.

The application for a liquor license of Etore Quaglia, Dublin canyon, was referred to the license committee.

RYONO AND UYENO LOSE
PURSES TO HIGHWAYMAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—G. J. Ryono and T. Uyeno of 3 Pregadio terrace were returning home shortly before midnight and when nearing the First avenue entrance to the terrace, were held up by two men armed with loaded revolvers. From Ryono the footpads obtained $10 and Uyeno was forced to give over $4. Descriptions of the pair were furnished the police.

FAIR CASHIER
'S WOMAN
IN CASE

Funk Charged With Taking
Mrs. Henning From Husband.

Capitalist Attributes Alienation
Suit to Lorimer Case
Testimony.

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—Much interest was taken today in the disclosure that Mrs. John C. Henning, whose attractions Clarence N. Funk, general manager of the International Harvester Company, is charged with having alienated from her husband, is a former assistant to the cashier of the Dutch and German rooms in the Congress Hotel here. Henning himself was for several years employed as a checker in the same hotel. Recently he has worked as a street car conductor.

Mrs. Henning is described as a striking looking young woman of a pronounced brunette type. Before her marriage her name was Miss Josephine O'Reilly.

Funk denies positively that he ever knew or spoke to a woman cashier at the Congress Hotel. He continues to attribute the alienation suit to testimony he gave in connection with the investigation of the election of United States Senator Lorimer.

Henning and wife were reported to be in Mobile, Ala., today by detectives employed by Funk. Counsel for Funk declared that efforts would be made to have the suit against him called for trial in the near future.

James H. Macfarlane, attorney for the United States Senate investigating committee inquiring into the case of Senator Lorimer, and Edgar A. Bankroft, attorney for Funk, held several conferences today.

There were in the lobby at the time several women representing the interest of the suffragettes in the examination of the votes which had aided in their enfranchisement.

The returns in large packages were brought in successive trips by deputy county clerks from the sealed vault in the clerk's office and deposited on the chairman's platform.

County Clerk Cook read the votes for each precinct from the tally sheets in each precinct. He was assisted in canvassing the precincts in rotation by his chief deputy, Andy E. Johnston, while Deputy Clerk George B. Keefe, A. C. Cunha and W. W. Chappell recorded, each in a separate book, each total read by the clerk. It is from the records of the vote made in these books that the total vote of each precinct and also of the county is to be ascertained.

The suffragettes were represented by Mrs. Agnes Ray of the Oakland Suffrage Amendment League, Mrs. Emma S. Shortzer, Dana Colledge of the College Suffrage League of Berkeley and Assemblyman Clark of this city, each of whom checked off on lists they had already made of the precinct returns, the totals made in the canvass.

At noon the canvass had reached the Fifth ward, no change having been made in the official showing.

A recess was taken until 1:30 o'clock this afternoon.

This morning the supervisors, after they had finished their routine and legislative business, commenced the canvass of the returns from the constitutional amendment election of Tuesday last.

BLAIR AGAIN ON THE WITNESS STAND

Former Representative Fails to Divulge What Committee Would Know.

Source of Blair's Small Fortune Is Not Told, Despite Questioning.

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—Former Representative Wm. C. Blair, a member of the legislature that elected Wm. Lorimer, was recalled to the stand at the beginning of today's session of the United States Senate committee that is investigating the matter. Attorney Healy examined Blair regarding his professional accounts and books and asked the witness to forward these accounts for the year 1909 to the committee.

Blair was then questioned in connection with the ball game at Centralia, Ill., in August, 1909, when it was charged he exhibited eleven $100 bills, in addition to other money.

"Did you go from Mt. Vernon to Centralia?"

"Yes."

"Did you tell A. C. Tanner that you came to Centralia from Olney, Ill., on the day of the ball game?"

"I don't think so."

"Had you been in Olney or Oden since the adjournment of the legislature in 1909?"

"I don't think so."

"Would you swear that you spent the night before the Centralia ball game at your home in Mt. Vernon?"

"I am not certain."

Several members of the committee, including Senators Keaton, Lea and Jones, questioned the witness closely regarding the source of the money which Blair is said to have exhibited at the ball game, but got no satisfactory replies.

Speaking on the theme, "And His Name Shall Be Called Wonderful," Eva Booth, grand commander of the Salvation Army of the United States, last night delivered an address to the largest crowd that ever gathered in the First Congregational church here. More than 3000 persons were crowded into the church, many who could not get inside congregating upon the steps and at the windows.

"Jesus came down," said the speaker, "that we might go up. He came not through palace doors, but through barn doors."

His entire life, from his birth in the manger to his crucifixion on Calvary, was one of wonderful faith, wonderful love, wonderful sorrow and wonderful condescension.

Preceding her address the speaker gave a brief account of notable incidents of her life, saying that she entered the Salvation Army work actively when she was 17 years of age. In the remarkably short time of twenty-two years she has worked her way to the position of grand commander of the United States.

A conclusion of the address several old men in the audience reminded the speaker that on a Sunday evening 25 years ago they had sat in the same building and listened to a sermon by her father, General Booth of London fame. One man produced a copy of a San Francisco paper under the date of October 1886, containing an account of the visit of General Booth to Oakland.

Preceding the services in the church the boys' band from the California Salvation Army orphanage at Lytton Springs serenaded the speaker.

BY CAR TRACKS

Passengers Find Six-Day Infant on San Jose Avenue.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—A six-day-old baby girl was found early this morning lying near the car track at San Jose avenue and Guerrero street by Thomas King of 3739 Twenty-sixth street, and is now under the care of the nurse at the Central Emergency hospital.

It attracted the notice of a position that Owl car and was just far enough from the rail to prevent being run over. King picked up the little one and found it lying inside the blanket in which she was wrapped a note to Father Lynch of St. James' Catholic church.

Father Lynch, on opening the note, gave out the information that the infant's name is Mary Alice Adams, and that it was sent to St. Joseph's orphan asylum.

INJURED DOING WELL.
OMAHA, Oct. 16.—Reports from the post hospital at Fort Crook, where the most seriously injured of yesterday's wreck on the Missouri Pacific Railroad at this point are being cared for, were that all were doing well.

At the conclusion of the address several old men in the audience reminded the speaker that on a Sunday evening 25 years ago they had sat in the same building and listened to a sermon by her father, General Booth of London fame.

BURGLARS GET AWAY WITH $230

Cash and Currency Form Loot of Crooks, who Overlook Stamps.

Discovery of Loss Is Made by Postmaster Eby This Morning.

FITCHBURG, Oct. 16.—Burglars broke into the local postoffice last night and got away with $230 in cash and currency which had been set aside by Postmaster Charles Eby to remit to the Oakland postoffice today. The money consisted of postal money order funds.

Entrance into the building was gained by way of the back door, which, according to the postmaster, must have been accidentally left unlocked, as the lock was unimpaired with and the key was found on the inside of the door as usual.

It is believed by the authorities that the robbers were familiar with the hiding place in which the money had been placed in preparation for remittance to the Oakland office. The fact that nothing in the office or store, in which the postoffice is situated, was disturbed except where the funds were hidden points to the correctness of the theory. The money was placed in a small metal box and deposited in a large cardboard box, which was hidden under a number of articles behind the distributing counter.

STAMPS NOT TAKEN.
After a careful investigation this morning nothing was found missing except the money. No attempt, apparently, had been made to break open the various drawers, in one of which a large quantity of stamps were kept. It was over an hour after Postmaster Eby had opened the office this morning before the discovery of the burglary was made. It was when he commenced to check up his accounts that he missed the money. It was then found that the back door, which is usually kept locked, was open. The robbery must have been committed some time between 9 o'clock last night and 7:30 this morning. Postmaster Eby was the last person in the office last night and the first this morning.

TEN ACRES ARE SWEEP BY FIRE

As a Result an Upper Fruitvale
Resident Is Under Arrest.

UPPER FRUITVALE, Oct. 16.—A fire which started on the Normand place at the junction of High and Evelyn streets, yesterday afternoon swept over ten acres and in its course destroyed a number of eating houses and yard fences. The fire was started by Alexander Normand, who was burning rubbish in his back yard. Normand was arrested by Captain T. Brown of the Melrose police for lighting the fire in defiance of the ordinance prohibiting the burning of rubbish out of doors without the permission of the fire chief. Normand is out on $500 bail. This is the second arrest of this nature made by the Melrose police during the last two weeks in an attempt to enforce the law.

Numerous fires in this section have been caused by the carelessness of the property owners in the last few months. Yesterday afternoon a fire, which caused an estimated damage of $500, and Normand's neighbors are up in arms against him. The police have a list of about forty persons who are liable for prosecution.

Among those are Mrs. B. Hines, Mrs. L. Wolf, Mrs. F. Ullman, Mrs. A. F. Hastand, Mr. Huber, C. W. Poole and J. S. Eyer.

JURY DELIBERATES

Men Accused of Robbing Him

Decision.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—The case of George Ransom and Frank McDonald, accused of grand larceny on complaint of Attorney George F. Witter of Oakland, is in the hands of a jury, which, after deliberating for two hours, have so far failed to agree on a verdict.

The circumstances of the alleged theft of $2250 from Witter, a lawyer, who was on both sides of the bay, attracted considerable interest at the time of the arrest. The case is alleged to have been committed February 15, 1911, but warrants for the apprehension of the accused were not applied for until August 11.

OPEN GAS JET CAUSES
DEATH OF LABORING MAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—James McAtee, a laborer, 57 years old, was found dead in a room in the lodging house, 163 Thama street, at 10:30 this morning. Gas was flowing freely from an open jet, but there was nothing to indicate as to what the death was due to accident or suicide.

CALL NINETEENTH CONGRESS.

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—A call for the nineteenth annual national irrigation congress was sent out yesterday. It will be held here from December 1 to 9. Delegates from each state, city and town in the United States have been invited to be present. The collection of leges, commercial bodies and engineering societies also have been invited to send representatives.

At the conclusion of the address several old men in the audience reminded the speaker that on a Sunday evening 25 years ago they had sat in the same building and listened to a sermon by her father, General Booth of London fame.

HOGAN LOSES FLAG, BUT HE'S STILL GAME AND HAPPY

Cheerful Leader of the Hooligans Planning to Come Back Next Year and Gather; Ables Most Responsible

The President has gone and all hope of the flag of the Coast League waving at Vernon has flown, so there isn't a whole lot of excitement in these neck of the woods this day. Leaving the trials of the President to the rest of the staff, we'll tarry long enough to let you know just how the Hooligans went by the boards. It was too much Ables, that's all, for Harry trounced them twice through the week, his victory yesterday morning putting the final crimp in their chances.

Opposed to Ables was "Soldier" Carson, and the Oaks piled up all their damage against him in the third inning. Kid Vares opened the way with a three-bagger clear to the score board in deep center field. Carson then cut loose a wild pitch, which scored Vares and gave Mitze his base on balls. Ables doubled Mitze at second, but Hoffman doubled to left, Ables legging it to third. Ables scored on another costly wild pitch and Hoffman went to third. Coy walked, and when Tiedemann bunted to Carson Hoffman beat the ball to the plate. Zacher's single to left counted Coy. Wolverton cut out Cutshaw singled to left, Tiedemann scoring Vares, up for the second time, made the third out, after five runs had been chalked up and the game put on ice.

YATES DOES WELL IN BOX.

In the afternoon conditions were different. The Villagers took a one-run lead in the third inning and romped in an easy winner. Gregory, working with a sore arm, stayed in the game for five innings while the Villagers were scoring two runs and Yates a yards a pusher from Clifroy, came on the scene for the rest of the contest.

Yates showed some promising ability on the mound, but the Oaks fed down so weakly in the field behind him that the lad's good work was thrown to the four winds. No less than six errors and six stolen bases were chalked up during his stay on the firing line and you can judge for yourself how bad the Oaks were on the defensive.

The Villagers grabbed the game with a patched-up line-up. Burrell was out with a sprained back and Patterson was out at short and Happy Hogan uncorked his pepper around first. The combination was not the most successful. Patterson contributed a couple of bobbles, but Brackridge was in good luck, hitting on the mound that he needed but little assistance from his team mates. Here's the way the good-looking scorers figured it all out:

SOCCER FOOTBALLERS HAVE SUCCESSFUL DAY ON FIELD

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—The Vampires recovered sufficiently from their slump yesterday to hold the Thistles down to an even break at the Ocean Shore grounds, each side beating the opposing goalkeeper on two occasions. Play was fast and exciting from the initial going to the end, the Scotsmen having the balance of play in the first half, while the Bats had decidedly the better of matters after the interval.

The league champions took the field with two players who had never previously worn their colors, and both of them made a promising debut. Boscow is a speedy outside right, who, when accustomed to the local game, will develop into useful material, and the elder Jackson needs no introduction to the local fans, as he had worn the Thistle uniform for several seasons.

Referee—Craig Wallace.

The Barbarians were no match for the Pastimes at the Presidio Athletic grounds yesterday, suffering defeat by seven goals to one. At no time during the ninety minutes did the Barbs appear to have a chance of holding the cup-holders down to a respectable margin, though they scored the third goal of the game. The goals were scored by Pike (3), Smith (1), Milzon (1), James (2), while Jack MacKenzie notched the solitary point for the Barbs.

The Burns sprung a surprise on the Independent soccer players at roll grounds yesterday, winning a close and exciting game by three goals to two. Each side had scored a brace of goals at the interval, but the Scotsmen, led by Marra in the closing stages of the struggle.

CENTURY CLUB WILL PLACE FAST TEAM IN THE FIELD

Despite the hot weather conditions, the traditions of the Century club ducks ponds for producing limit bags on the opening day's shoot were kept up yesterday.

A cool morning, followed later by a westerly breeze, did considerably. Limit bags were the general luck early in the morning. Ducks were very plentiful and the flight from pond to pond kept the gunners busy. Spring predominated, and with the mallard and teal, a sprinkling of widgeon and but few spoonbills, made an auspicious opening for the fall duck shooting.

Among these birds the northern migrants were easily discerned by their plumage. The early appearance of wild geese leads to the belief that this variety will be numerous this season.

Never in the history of Alameda marshes has there been so much water. The water is so high that the ducks have been so acceptable as yesterday morning. In nearly every section of the marsh from San Leandro to Alviso birds were plentiful.

A warm morning was not much of an inducement for a flight. On top of that condition the ducks were very scarce. By 10 o'clock the shooting was practically over. Most of the birds had taken refuge in the open bay waters.

But few limits were brought in from the Alameda marshes; the gunner with a dozen sprigs was the exception. Most ducks were decorated with sprigs of waterfowl, sprig, mallard or spoonbill. Quail hunters out in the Marin and Contra Costa hills returned with plenty of birds. The hot weather bothered the ducks considerably; birds, however, were very plentiful and the sport was excellent.

WED ON HORSES AT STREET FAIR

Irvington Couple Participate in Unique Marriage Ceremony.

IRVINGTON, Oct. 13.—Miss Gladys Ward of San Jose and Santos Bernier, champion broncho rider of the Garden City, were married here yesterday, the young couple being on horseback when the nuptial knot was tied. The ceremony was performed at the noon recess between the wild west show evening of the morning and afternoon. The pair were lustily cheered by hundreds of men and women who witnessed the marriage.

The various contests, including broncho riding, steer-tying, roping and bull-doin' were pulled off successfully, the most skillful cowboys from Alameda and Contra Costa counties taking part.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CHILDREN PRESENTED DIPLOMAS

SAN LEANDRO, Oct. 16. — Exercises and the presenting of diplomas to the pupils of the Sunday school of the San Leandro Presbyterian church took place yesterday in the auditorium of the church.

The activities are presided over by Roy Monroe Drew, pastor, assisted by O. C. Lynch, superintendent of the intermediate and senior departments, and Mrs. C. A. Perry, superintendent of the beginner, primary and junior departments.

Following was the program: Organ selection, opening exercises by the primary grade, songs by school children, roll call, reading of the scriptures, musical selection, song duet, reading on-mission, musical selection, presentation of promotion diplomas, song by school children.

JANITOR ON MOTORCYCLE FRACTURES HIS SKULL

PIEDMONT, Oct. 16.—While returning home on his motorcycle Thursday afternoon at dusk, C. Hanson, janitor of the Piedmont school, lost control of his machine, running into a pole on Piedmont avenue. He was thrown to the street, breaking his collar bone and shoulder blade and fracturing his skull, and was removed immediately to Fabiola Hospital where he is recovering from his injuries.

WASHINGTON STREET CORNER TENTH

PUTS AN END TO STOMACH MISERY

Indigestion, Gas, Heartburn or Dyspepsia Go in Five Minutes.

Every family here ought to keep some Diapiesin in the house, as any one of you may have an attack of Indigestion or Stomach Trouble at any time, day or night.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a distressed, out-of-order stomach five minutes afterword.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lay like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of Indigestion. Ask your Pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Diapiesin, and take a little just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach, to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it prevents fermentation and takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there. Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is at your drug store, waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases of Pape's Diapiesin contain more than sufficient to cure any case of Dyspepsia, Indigestion or any other Stomach Trouble.

MANY NEW YORK
UNION MEN IDLE

State Report for First Half of Year Gives Percentage at 25.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 16.—Returns to the State bureau of labor statistics from 190 trade unions with 120,000 members, as to idleness during the first half of the year 1911, reflect a less favorable condition of the labor market this year than last, or, in fact, than any other recent year. Except 1908. The percentage of members reported idle is twenty-five, this year, as compared with nineteen last year, and twenty-two in 1909. In 1908, when business depression following the panic of 1907 was at its worst, the percentage was thirty-five.

It is noted, however, that increased idleness does not appear universally in the industries represented in the returns. The most prosperous exceptions are the clothing, printing, food, liquor and tobacco trades. It is in the metal trades that the greatest idleness appears, but the increase is heavy in the building and transportation trades also.

WOMAN TELLS OF FIGHT WITH DEATH ON DESERT

Frail Mother With Five Children and Dead Husband Near End When Saved
by Teamsters

SAN BERNARDINO, Oct. 15.—To be lost on the desert with five small children to care for and the remains of a husband unbathed, was the frightful experience of Mrs. George McDermitt, the Utah woman who was found Saturday by desert teamsters, twenty miles from Wild Horse canyon, in Inyo county. Overcome by the hardships and, anxious to save her little woman now lies in a little mining camp, in the wilds of Inyo, her life hanging by a slender thread.

"We had noticed the tracks of a prairie schooner zig-zagging toward a waterless, desolate section of the desert," said one of the teamsters to Peter Blackburn, who brought the news of the family's plight here, "and recognized at once something was wrong."

"We hitched up a horse to a light buckboard we were trailing and followed the tracks. When we overtook the big canvased wagon one of the horses pulling the wagon was down in the sand writhing. Mrs. McDermitt clung to the reins, and an old infant in one arm and with her free hand was tugging at the bridle, trying to get the dying horse to its feet."

HUSBAND'S BODY IN WAGON.
"Are you and those children alone?" was asked. The little woman sobbed and pointing a trembling finger, replied: "My husband's in there."

In the wagon, to which she had pointed the teamsters found the body. He, she had been dead only a few hours. The widowed mother had tried to return into the canyon by the way her husband had come, hoping to reach Utah with his remains or find succor. She had driven twenty miles from her course, and she and her five children would surely have perished but for the timely discovery.

From the fragments of her story as related to the teamsters, an idea of her hardships can be imagined. They had been driven in the weeks of desert travel by picturing a haven of rest in California. Everything had gone well until their camp suddenly died. It had been the mainstay of the children. Next the horses fell ill. McDermitt and his wife worked in the scorching sun and through the chilling nights to restore them, knowing that it meant death to be stranded where they were. During the last night of McDermitt's life he became delirious.

MENACED BY COYOTES.

"There were the horses down, far from any known habitation, without a drop of water, and our meager water supply fell, the desert and bare mountains on either hand, and he ill. Time and again during the night I left him just long enough to climb a knoll near the wagon, from which to search for a camp fire. But all was darkness, except for the light of the moon. The coyotes, with their howrible howls, came at times very close to the wagon, so I was afraid to leave the children alone. Once I thought they were after the horses, the horses were thrashing about so.

"Then George died. I knew he was dead when I leaned over him to see why he didn't breathe any more. That was just before dawn. It seemed hours before it was light enough to get around. As soon as I could see I harnessed the horses. They were still sick, but I had to get out of there. Sometimes the boy would ask why I didn't wake papa, but I couldn't tell him that George was dead. I tried not to think of it."

"When we finally got started the horses would go for a short distance, then one of them would fall. Each time I had to get out and by main force pull it to its feet. I don't know how I happened to miss the road into the canyon. We had only half a cask of water left, and I knew I had to drive right along, so I guess I didn't pay any attention to the landmarks."

After the teamsters rescued the little family the mother swooned and had been in a delirious condition for some time when Blackburn came up with the rescuers and rescued. She had been calling for her infant, and one of the teamsters was bathing the baby's face and combing its hair when Blackburn stopped where they were resting in the canyon.

"The mother wants this little thing," explained the big-hearted teamster, "and I'm just washing it up a bit so it'll be sort of fresh to her feeling."

TITLE MEN MEET
IN CONVENTION

Views on Methods of Handling
Transfers to Be Discussed.

LITTLE ROCK, Oct. 16.—Members of the bar and laymen from all parts of the United States have gathered here to exchange views on titles, their transference, search and filing. The occasion is the fifth annual convention of the American Association of Title Men, which convenes tomorrow for sessions lasting till the evening of October 19.

Many prominent members of the association will address the delegates and discussions will be held on all matters pertaining to titles. F. W. Faith of Mobile will speak on "A Safe Title." "The Stability of the American Title System" will be reviewed by Emil Rosenberg of Philadelphia, and other addresses of equal interest will engage the attention of the title men.

Particular attention will be given to the side lines that may be carried on with a title business. The title man's relation with the loan man, the relation between the abstractor and examiner, and abstracts, titles and title insurance will be some of the topics that will engage this branch of the title business.

WORST IN REFUSAL.

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 16.—President J. H. Worst of the North Dakota Agricultural College, mentioned recently in press dispatches as a possible successor to Secretary Wilson, will not accept the position, should it be tendered to him, according to a letter received from him by M. O. Hall of this city.

DEATH RETIRES
AGED ENGINEER

Veteran S. P. Throttle Handler
Runs Out on Last Trip.

James B. Wilson, a retired veteran engineer of the Southern Pacific Company, died Saturday at his home, 1730 Ninth street, after an illness of a year and a half. He entered the employ of the Southern Pacific Company in 1882 and continued in active service up to 18 months ago, when he was retired and placed on a pension. Previous to engaging in railroad work Wilson engaged in mining in various parts of the State. He was a native of Maine, 71 years of age.

For many years the veteran throttle handler ran out of this city on the Owl. He was a capable and careful engineer and during his long career in the cab he was never involved in a serious accident. Wilson is survived by his wife, Augusta D. Wilson, and a son, E. Colin Wilson. The funeral of the veteran engineer will be held from his late residence this afternoon and was conducted under the auspices of Alcatraz Lodge No. 234, F. and A. M. and Leland Stanford Division No. 233, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, of which the deceased was a charter member. The services at the house were conducted by the Masons and at the grave in Mountain View cemetery by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

Many an Oakland Citizen Knows How Sure They Are.

Nothing uncertain about the work of Doan's Kidney Pills in Oakland. There is plenty of positive proof of this in the testimony of citizens. Such evidence should convince the most skeptical doubter. Read the following statement:

George R. Scott, 684 Thirty-seventh street, Oakland, Cal., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have given entire satisfaction in my case and for that reason I value them highly. In 1907 I gave a statement for publication, regarding my experience with them. At this time I gladly endorse them again. I doctored for years in an effort to get relief from a pain in my back and other difficulties due to disordered kidneys. No improvement was noticeable, however, and finally I discontinued the use of doctors' medicine. Reading about Doan's Kidney Pills I was impressed and procuring a supply I began their use. Relief soon followed and almost before I realized it my back was free from pain and soreness. Since then when I have been in need of a kidney medicine I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills and they have never failed to help me."

the national monetary commission, according to an announcement made by the chairman of the commission yesterday. The commission will hear financiers in New York Monday and in Chicago October 20, and will then proceed to San Francisco. These will be the last hearings before the commission makes its report to Congress at the next session in December.

HOW TO START A FIRE

Smaller quantities of bituminous coal should be used at each firing and sufficient draft given to get the coal well ignited. After the gases have been burned, for instance, following the subsidence of the flame, leaving a bed for red hot coals, the drafts from the stoves or furnaces should be closed, thereby retaining the heat.

Do not put large lumps in when firing bituminous coal. It is slower to ignite than the lignite, but when once started gives a more even and uniform heat.

Bituminous coal in firing requires less than if the lignite is used. This will aid in getting a quicker ignition and thus secure a more complete combustion of gases.

HONORS HEAPED ON CARDINAL GIBBONS

Archbishop Farley Mentions
Name in Connection With Papacy.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 16.—In the cathedral here, where fifty years ago he was ordained a priest, then successively consecrated a bishop, invested with the pallium of an archbishop, and twenty years after his ordination received the red beretta of a cardinal, James (Cardinal) Gibbons, archbishop of Baltimore yesterday received homage from illustrious prelates and laymen from both this country and foreign lands.

The ecclesiastical celebration of the cardinal's dual jubilee began yesterday morning with pontifical high mass, celebrated by the cardinal. Archbishop John J. Glennon of St. Louis delivered the sermon.

The music was chiefly Gregorian, though there were intervals of figured music and orchestral instruments were employed in the choir. The decorations were confined to the sanctuary. The main altar was ablaze with hundreds of candles and radiant with thousands of Bernini vases. In the procession, which for impressiveness probably never has been surpassed in this country, were nine of America's twelve archbishops and about thirty bishops.

DINNER FOLLOWS MASS.

Following the mass, dinner was served to the visiting clergy. In response to a toast proposed for Pope Pius, Archbishop Falconio, the papal delegate, said that up to the time of the present pontiff's election "society at large was distracted by a spirit of innovation and unwholesome liberty; the a vastly extended and most dangerous organization of modernistic ideas was undermining the most fundamental truth of the Christian religion and that problems of the high importance for the welfare of the church and of society were awaiting a speedy solution."

FALCONIO PRAISES POPE.

"There was required then," said the archbishop, "a man of apostolic zeal, a man coming from the ranks of the people who could fully understand their wants and direct the movements of the advancing democracy; a man of Christian courage and of stern determination, able to protect the rights of the church and religious liberty against irreligious legislation and atheism. And God provided the church with such a providential man in the person of Pius X, whose energetic action in the administration of the church has been so beneficial to religion."

Archbishop Farley of New York expressed the hope that eventually Cardinal Gibbons would be seated upon the throne of the Vatican.

The cardinal, rising at the end of the dinner, said the prejudice which formerly existed against Catholicism in this country was almost exterminated. He charged the bishops and archbishops around him to garner by the end of another fifty years 100,000,000 souls for the Catholic Church in this country. Archbishop Falconio celebrated vespers in the cathedral last night, and the sermon was delivered by Archbishop Blenk of New Orleans.

2500 ENTRIES PLANNED
FOR BIG POULTRY SHOW

STOCKTON, Oct. 16.—The San Joaquin County Poultry Association will give its second annual poultry show November 7 to 11, and indications are that it will be the largest ever held on the coast. Entries are estimated at between 2500 and 2600 birds.

Fifteen trophies will be awarded for the best displays and best birds of all classes. A silver trophy for the best female bird in the show has been offered by Walter N. Parrish of this city, secretary of the state senate. Cash prizes will be awarded all firsts and seconds in all classes.

Secretary McKay has received inquiries from Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Nevada, Texas and New Mexico.

The Orpington class will be a big feature of the show. There will be all of 400 birds of that class. The officers of the association are: John D. Gall, president; C. Cunningham, first vice president; W. H. Bissell, second vice president; W. C. McKay, secretary; C. P. McCallen, treasurer; Ben M. Wood, hull; J. J. Hayes, William A. French, A. W. Howell and A. B. Claves, executive committee.
